- (ii) in case the shares are repurchased by the Company at a price higher than the par value, the portion equivalent to the par value shall be deducted from the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company and from the proceeds from the issuance of new shares as a result of the repurchase of existing shares; the portion above the par value shall be handled in accordance with the following methods:
 - 1. in case the repurchased shares are issued at the price of their par value, such portion shall be deducted from the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company;
 - 2. in case the repurchased shares are issued at a price higher than the price of their par value, such portion shall be deducted from the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company and from the proceeds from the issuance of new shares as a result of the repurchase of existing shares; however, the amount deducted from the issuance of new shares shall not exceed total the premium income from the previous issuance of the existing shares so repurchased, and shall not exceed the amount in the premium account (or capital reserve account) of the Company (including the premium amount of the issuance of new shares) during the repurchase.

- (iii) the Company shall pay out of its distributable profits for the following purposes:
1. the acquisition of its repurchase rights to repurchase its shares;
 2. the alteration of a contract to repurchase its shares;
 3. the discharge of its obligations in a repurchase contract.
- (iv) after the total par value of the cancelled shares is reduced from the Company's registered capital in accordance with the relevant regulations, the amount deducted from the distributable profits and used for repurchasing the par value of the shares shall be included in the Company's premium account (or capital reserve account).

In the event where there are relevant provisions under laws, regulations, regulatory documents or competent securities regulatory authorities where the shares of the Company are listed separately stipulating the financial arrangements regarding the repurchase of shares, those provisions shall be complied with accordingly.

Section 3 Transfer of Shares

Article 33 Unless otherwise required by laws, administrative regulations and the securities regulatory authorities in the jurisdictions where the shares of the Company are listed, the shares of the Company may be lawfully transferred free from any lien.

Article 34 The Company shall not accept the shares of the Company as the subject of pledges.

Article 35 The shares of the Company held by the promoters shall not be transferred within one year from the date of the establishment of the Company. The shares issued prior to the public offering of shares by the Company shall not be transferred within one year from the date the shares of the Company were listed and traded at the stock exchanges.

The Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management officers of the Company shall notify the Company of his/her shareholding in the Company and the movements of these shares, and each year during their terms of office shall not transfer more than 25% of the same class of shares. These shares shall not be transferred within one year from the date the Company's shares are listed. The aforesaid persons shall not transfer his/her shareholding in the Company within six months after termination of employment, save for as demanded by a court order.

Article 36 When shareholders holding more than 5% of the shares, Directors, Supervisors and senior management officers of the Company sell their shares or other equity securities within six months from the acquisition of such shares, or purchase shares within six months from the disposal of such shares, the resulting gains are owned by the Company and the Board of Directors of the Company shall recover its resulting gains. However, the disposal of such shares by securities companies holding more than 5% of the shares as a result of the outstanding shares acquired under underwriting, and other circumstances stipulated by the CSRC are excluded.

The shares or other equity securities held by the Directors, Supervisors, senior management officers and natural person shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph shall include the shares or other equity securities held by their spouse, parents, children, and those held through the accounts of others.

Shareholders may require the Board of Directors to comply with the requirement set out in the first paragraph of this Article within 30 days if the Board of Directors fails to do so. In the event that the Board of Directors fails to rectify the situation within the said timeline, shareholders may file a legal action to the court in their own name for safeguarding the interests of the Company.

If the Board of Directors of the Company fails to comply with the first paragraph of this Article, relevant responsible Directors shall bear joint liability pursuant to the laws.

Section 4 Financial Assistance for Repurchase of Shares of the Company

Article 37 The Company or its subsidiaries shall not at any time provide any financial assistance in any way to any person who purchases or intends to purchase the shares of the Company. The persons who purchase the shares of the Company referred to above shall include those persons who directly or indirectly undertake obligations as a result of the purchase of the shares of the Company.

The Company or its subsidiaries shall not at any time provide any financial assistance in any way to the obligors referred to above for minimizing or discharging their obligations.

This Article shall not apply to the acts described in Article 39 hereinafter.

Article 38 The term “financial assistance” mentioned in this section shall include, but not limited to, the following methods:

- (i) presentation of a gift;
- (ii) guarantee (including the undertaking of liability or the provision of property by a guarantor to ensure that an obligor fulfills his/her obligations), compensation (but not including any compensation caused by the fault of the Company) and discharge or waiver of rights;
- (iii) provision of a loan or conclusion of a contract under which the Company has priority over other parties in fulfilling its obligations, as well as changes in the loan or the parties to the contract, and transfer of the loan or the rights in such contract;
- (iv) financial assistance provided by the Company in any ways when the Company becomes insolvent or does not have any net assets, or there are scenarios leading to a substantial reduction of net assets.

For the purposes hereof, the term “undertaking of obligations” shall include the obligations undertaken by an obligor whose financial status is changed as a result of concluding a contract or making an arrangement (whether or not such contract or arrangement is enforceable or is undertaken by the obligor or jointly with any other persons), or otherwise.

Article 39 The following acts shall not be deemed as acts banned under Article 37 hereof, except those prohibited by law, regulations or regulatory documents:

- (i) the financial assistance is provided by the Company in good faith in the interests of the Company, and not for the purpose of purchasing the shares of the Company, or does not form a supplementary part of a certain master project of the Company;
- (ii) the Company lawfully distributes its property as dividends;

- (iii) the dividends are distributed in the form of shares;
- (iv) the registered capital is reduced, shares are repurchased, shareholding structure is adjusted according hereto;
- (v) the Company provides a loan within its scope of business for its normal business activities (but this shall not lead to a decrease in the Company's net assets, or even a decrease was caused, such financial assistance is made available from the Company's distributable profits);
- (vi) the Company provides funds for the employee share ownership scheme (but this shall not lead to a decrease in the Company's net assets, or even a decrease was resulted in, such financial assistance is made available from the Company's distributable profits).

CHAPTER 4 SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REGISTER OF MEMBERS

Article 40 Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

In addition to providing information required by the Company Law, share certificates of the Company shall also contain any other data specified by the stock exchanges where the shares of the Company are listed.

Share certificates shall be signed by the Chairman. In the event that the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed require the signatures of other senior management officers of the Company, the share certificates shall be signed by such other relevant senior management officers. Share certificates shall take effect after being affixed or printed with the Company seal. The affixture of the Company seal shall be authorized by the Board. The signatures of the legal representative or other senior management officers of the Company on the shares may take the printed form.

Article 41 As to the matters stipulated in Article 40 of the Articles of Association, those provisions as required by the securities regulatory authorities in the place where the shares of the Company are listed shall apply in case the shares are issued and transacted in scripless form.

Article 42 The Company shall create a register of members based on the evidence provided by a securities registry to record the following particulars:

- (i) the name, address (residence), occupation or type of each shareholder;
- (ii) the class and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (iii) the amount paid or payable for the shares held by each shareholder;
- (iv) the serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (v) the date of registering as a shareholder by each shareholder;
- (vi) the date of terminating as a shareholder by each shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of members shall be sufficient evidence substantiating that the shareholders hold the shares of the Company.

Article 43 The Company may, in accordance with the understanding or agreement reached between the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council and the local securities regulatory authorities at the place of overseas listing, keep the original register of holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares at the location where such shares were listed, and may appoint a local foreign agency at the place of overseas listing to manage it. The original register of holders of Hong Kong-listed foreign-invested shares shall be kept in Hong Kong.

A copy of the register of holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares shall be made available at the Company's domicile; the appointed local agency at the place of overseas listing shall at any time ensure the original and the copy of the register of holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares are consistent.

In the event that the records in the original and the copy of the register of holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares are inconsistent, the original shall prevail.

Article 44 The Company shall maintain a complete register of members. A register of members shall include the following parts:

- (i) a register of members, other than those prescribed in items (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph, kept at the Company's domicile;
- (ii) the Company's register of holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares kept at the location of the stock exchange on which such shares are listed;
- (iii) a register of members, which the Board has decided that it shall be kept in other places for the needs of the listing of the shares of the Company.

Article 45 Each section of the register of members shall not overlap each other. In the event that the shares registered in a section of the register of members are transferred, they may not be registered to other sections of the register of members during the period of the registration.

Any change or correction in the register of shareholders, shall comply with the relevant laws at the place of the relevant register.

Article 46 All overseas-listed foreign-invested shares listed in Hong Kong, if they are fully paid up, may be freely transferred pursuant to the Articles of Association. However, unless such transfer complies with the following requirements, the Board of Directors may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer without providing any reason:

- (i) the instrument of transfer and other documents, which are related to and may affect the ownership of any registered securities, shall be registered, and a fee of HK$2.50 or such higher amount as agreed by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be paid to the Company for the registration of any instrument of transfer or other documents relating to or affecting the ownership of the shares;
- (ii) the instrument of transfer is only related to Hong Kong-listed foreign-invested shares;
- (iii) a payable stamp duty has been paid for the transfer instrument;
- (iv) the related shares and other evidence, as reasonably requested by the Board of Directors, on the shares which the transferor has the right to transfer have been submitted;

- (v) the number of joint holders shall not exceed four in case shares are transferred to joint holders; and
- (vi) the shares are free from any lien of the Company.

In the event that the Company refuses to register the transfer of shares, the Company shall give a notice regarding the refusal of share transfer to the transferor and transferee within two months from the date the application regarding the transfer of shares is received.

All the transfers of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares listed in Hong Kong shall be effected by written instruments of transfer in an ordinary or common form or in any other form acceptable to the Board of Directors (including the standard transfer format or form of transfer provided by Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time). The instruments of transfer may be signed by hand only or (where the transferor or transferee is a corporation) by the company's seal. Where the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house as defined by relevant regulations of the laws of Hong Kong from time to time (hereinafter referred to as the "Recognized Clearing House") or its nominee, the form of transfer may be signed by hand or in a machine-imprinted format. The Company may close the register of members on terms equivalent to section 632 of the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 under the Laws of Hong Kong).

Article 47 Where PRC laws and regulations and the Hong Kong Listing Rules stipulate on the period of closure of the register of shareholders prior to a shareholders' general meeting or the base date on which the Company decides to distribute dividends, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 48 In the event that any person has an objection to the register of members and asks for registering his/her name in or removing his/her name from, the register of members, he/she may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for correcting the register of members.

Article 49 For any shareholder who is registered in the register of members or any person who asks for registering his/her name in the register of members, if his/her share certificates (i.e. "original share certificates") are lost, he/she may apply to the Company for issuing duplicate share certificates in respect of those shares (the "underlying share certificates").

Application by a holder of domestic-invested shares for issuance of a duplicate share certificate due to loss of the same shall be dealt with pursuant to Article 143 of the Company Law.

In the event that a holder of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares has lost his/her share certificates and applies for issuing duplicate share certificates, he/she shall handle the matter in accordance with the laws of the place where the original register of holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares is maintained, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant stipulations.

Application for replacement of lost share certificates made by a shareholder of H Shares shall be subject to the following requirements:

- (i) the applicant shall file an application in the standard format designated by the Company and attach a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration document. The notarial certificate or statutory declaration document shall contain particulars such as the reasons of the applicant for the application, details of the lost share certificates and evidence thereon as well as a statement setting out that there are no any other persons who have asked for registering as shareholders in respect of the underlying shares.

- (ii) before the Company decides to issue duplicate share certificates, it has not received any statement from any persons other than the applicant requesting for registering as shareholders of those shares.
- (iii) after the Company decides to issue duplicate share certificates to the applicant, it shall publish an announcement in the newspapers designated by the Board of Directors on its preparations to issue duplicate share certificates for a period of ninety days. The announcement shall be republished at least once every 30 days.
- (iv) before the Company publishes an announcement on its preparations to issue duplicate share certificates, it shall submit a copy of the announcement to the stock exchange on which it is listed, and may immediately publish it after receiving a reply from the stock exchange confirming that the announcement has been posted on the stock exchange. The announcement shall be posted on the stock exchange for a period of ninety days.

In the event that an application for the issuance of duplicate share certificates is not approved by the shareholder of the underlying shares recorded in the register, the Company shall mail a copy of the announcement to be published to the shareholder.

- (v) upon expiry of the period of ninety days for the publication of the announcement prescribed in items (iii) and (iv) hereof, the Company may issue duplicate share certificates based on the application made by the applicant in the event that it has not received any objection from any person to the issuance of duplicate share certificates.
- (vi) when the Company issues duplicate share certificates hereunder, it shall immediately cancel the original share certificates, and have the cancellation and replacement recorded in the register of members.
- (vii) all expenses of the Company incurred from the cancellation of the original share certificates and issuance of duplicate share certificates shall be borne by the applicant. The Company has the right to refuse to take any action unless the applicant provides reasonable security.

Article 50 After the Company issues duplicate share certificates in accordance with the requirements hereof, the name of the bona fide purchaser who has obtained such duplicate share certificates or the shareholder subsequently registered as the owner of such duplicate share certificates (in the case of bona fide purchaser) may not be removed from the register of members.

Article 51 The Company shall not be under any obligations to compensate any person who incurs damages as a result of the cancellation of the original share certificates or the issuance of the duplicate share certificates, unless the person can prove that the Company has fraudulent conduct.

CHAPTER 5 SHAREHOLDER AND SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Section 1 Shareholder

Article 52 A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name is recorded in the register of members. A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class of shares held by him/her; shareholders who hold existing shares of the same class shall enjoy the equal rights and assume the equal obligations.

The Company shall not exercise any of its rights to impede or otherwise prejudice any of the rights attached to any of Company's shares only by reason that such person or persons who are interested directly or indirectly therein have failed to disclose his/her interests to the Company.

Article 53 When the Company needs to confirm the identity of shareholders for holding a shareholders' general meeting, distributing dividends, conducting liquidation and engaging in other acts, the Board of Directors or the convener of the shareholders' general meeting shall determine the record date. Shareholders registered in the register of members after close of market on the record date shall be those shareholders entitled to the relevant rights and interests of shareholders of the Company.

Article 54 A shareholder of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (i) receive dividends and benefit distributions in other forms according to the portion of shares he/she holds;
- (ii) make a request to, convene, preside over and attend or appoint a proxy to attend a shareholders' general meeting, and speak at the meeting and exercise the corresponding voting rights in accordance with the law;
- (iii) carry out supervision of the Company's operations, and make recommendations or raise questions;
- (iv) transfer, grant or pledge the shares he/she holds in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authorities where the shares of the Company are listed and the provisions hereof;
- (v) access to the Articles of Association, register of members (including the Hong Kong branch register), counterfoils of corporate bonds, minutes of shareholders' general meetings, resolutions of the Board, resolutions of the Supervisory Committee and financial and accounting reports;

The Company shall make the above documents and any other applicable documents available at the Company's place of business in Hong Kong pursuant to the requirements of the Listing Rules of Hong Kong for inspection by the public and shareholders.

- (vi) participation in the distribution of surplus property of the Company according to the portion of shares he/she holds at the time when the Company ceases operation or goes into liquidation;
- (vii) those shareholders who object to a resolution made at a shareholders' general meeting on the merger or division of the Company request that the Company purchase their shares;
- (viii) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

Article 55 In the event that a shareholder wants to access the relevant information as described in the preceding article, or to obtain information, he/she shall provide a written document to the Company proving the class and number of shares of the Company he/she holds. Such information shall be provided to the shareholder at his/her request after the Company verifies the identity of the shareholder.

Article 56 In the event that the particulars of a resolution passed at a shareholders' general meeting or a Board meeting are in violation of laws or administrative regulations, the shareholders shall have the right to petition a court to establish such particulars as invalid.

In the event that the procedures for convening a shareholders' general meeting or a Board meeting, or the voting methods thereof are in violation of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or the particulars of a resolution are in violation hereof, the shareholders shall have the right to petition a court to make revocation within 60 days from the date of the resolution.

Article 57 In the event that a director or a senior management officer violates laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association when performing his/her duties for the Company, thus causing losses to the Company, the shareholders who either alone or jointly having been holding more than 1% of shares of the Company for 180 consecutive days or more shall have the right to request in writing that the Supervisory Committee lodge legal actions with the People's Court. In the event that the Supervisory Committee violates laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association when executing its duties for the Company, thus causing losses to the Company, shareholders may request in writing that the Board lodge legal actions with the People's Court.

In the event that the Supervisory Committee or the Board refuses to take legal action upon receipt of the request in writing from the shareholders as prescribed in the preceding paragraph, or does not take legal action within 30 days of receiving such a request, or any emergency or failure to take immediate legal action will cause irreparable damage to the interests of the Company, the shareholders prescribed in the preceding paragraph shall have the right to lodge legal actions with the People's Court in their own names in the interests of the Company.

In the event that some other persons infringe the legitimate rights and interests of the Company, thus causing losses to the Company, the shareholders prescribed in the first paragraph of this Article may lodge legal actions with the People's Court in accordance with the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs.

Article 58 In the event that a director or a senior management officer violates laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, thus causing damage to the interests of shareholders, the shareholders may lodge legal actions with the People's Court.

Article 59 A shareholder of the Company shall undertake the following obligations:

- (i) Comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (ii) pay equity capital according to his/her shares subscribed and the method of equity capital injection;
- (iii) may not withdraw equity shares unless provided by laws or administrative regulations;
- (iv) may not abuse the rights of a shareholder to prejudice the interests of the Company or other shareholders; may not abuse the Company's independent status of legal person and shareholders' limited liability to prejudice the interests of the Company's creditors;
- (v) other obligations to be undertaken as prescribed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

In the event that a shareholder abuses his/her rights, thus causing losses to the Company or other shareholders, he/she shall be liable for compensation in accordance with the laws. In the event that a shareholder of the Company abuses the Company's independent status of legal person and shareholders' limited liability to evade debts, thus seriously prejudicing the interests of the Company's creditors, he/she shall be jointly and severally liable for the Company's debts.

Save for the conditions agreed by a subscriber for shares during the subscription, shareholders shall not be liable for any subsequent contribution of additional share capital.

Article 60 In the event that a shareholder holding more than 5% of the voting shares of the Company pledges the shares he/she holds, he/she shall report to the Company in writing on the date of making the pledge.

Article 61 The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall not prejudice the Company's interests by taking advantage of their connections. They shall be liable for compensation for losses caused to the Company as a result of their violation.

The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall have an obligation of good faith towards the Company and public shareholders. The controlling shareholders shall exercise the rights of an investor in strict compliance with the law. They may not prejudice the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and public shareholders by means of distribution of profits, restructuring of assets, foreign investment, appropriation of funds, loan guarantees and other means, and they may not prejudice the interests of the Company and public shareholders by taking advantage of their controlling position.

In the event the controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company misappropriates the assets or funds of the Company, the Company shall apply to the People's Court to freeze the shares of the Company held by the controlling shareholder according to the provisions of the laws. If the controlling shareholder is unable to make any restitution or cash compensation for any assets of the Company misappropriated by him/her, the Company is entitled to dispose the shares of the Company held by him/her in accordance with the provisions of the laws and regulations, to be compensated for the amount of assets or funds of the Company which had been misappropriated by the controlling shareholders.

Article 62 In addition the obligations required under laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, the controlling shareholders, in the exercise of their powers, may not make any decision on the following issues to jeopardize the interests of all or some of shareholders as a result of exercising their rights to vote:

- (i) removing a Director or Supervisor to reflect, in good faith, the responsibility of doing so in the best interests of the Company as a starting point;
- (ii) approving a Director or Supervisor (for his/her own or others' benefits) of depriving the property of the Company in any way, including (but not limited to) any opportunity beneficial to the Company;
- (iii) approving a Director or Supervisor (for his/her own or others' benefits) of depriving the personal rights and interests of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) any distribution rights and voting rights, but excluding corporate restructuring submitted to a shareholders' general meeting for approval in accordance herewith.

Article 63 The "controlling shareholder" referred to herein means a shareholder who holds ordinary shares (including preferred shares with voting rights restored) representing 50% or more of the total share capital of the Company, or a shareholder having sufficient voting right in respect of the shares who holds to pose a significant influence on the resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings despite holding less than 50% of the total share capital of the Company.

Section 2 General Provisions of the Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 64 The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of power of the Company and shall lawfully exercise its powers as follows:

- (i) decide on the business policies and investment plans of the Company;
- (ii) elect and replace Directors and Supervisors assumed by non-employee representatives; decide on the remuneration of Directors and Supervisors;
- (iii) consider and approve the report of the Board;
- (iv) consider and approve the report of the Supervisory Committee;
- (v) consider and approve the Company's annual budget and final accounts proposals;
- (vi) consider and approve the Company's profit distribution plan and loss recovery plan;
- (vii) make a resolution on the increase or decrease of the registered capital of the Company;
- (viii) make a resolution on the issuance of shares, repurchase of the shares of the Company, issuance of corporate bonds by the Company;
- (ix) make a resolution on the merger, division, dissolution or liquidation of the Company, or on the change in the type of the Company;
- (x) amend the Articles of Association;
- (xi) make a resolution on the Company's engagement and dismissal of an accounting firm;
- (xii) consider and approve the guarantees prescribed in Article 65 hereof;
- (xiii) consider the Company's purchase or sale of major assets within one year in excess of 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets;
- (xiv) consider and approve changes in the use of proceeds;
- (xv) consider equity incentive plans and employee share ownership plans;
- (xvi) consider other matters on which resolutions shall be made by a shareholders' general meeting as required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, securities regulatory authorities where the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association.

Article 65 The following external guarantees by the Company shall be considered and approved by a shareholders' general meeting.

- (i) any guarantee provided after the total amount of external guarantees by the Company and its controlling subsidiaries exceeds 50% of the latest audited net assets;
- (ii) any guarantee provided after the total amount of external guarantees by the Company exceeds 30% of the latest audited total assets;
- (iii) any guarantee by the Company within one year with guaranteed amount in excess of 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (iv) any guarantee provided for a target party whose asset-liability ratio is over 70%;
- (v) any guarantee with a single guaranteed amount in excess of 10% of the latest audited net assets;
- (vi) any guarantee provided to shareholders, de facto controllers and their connected parties.

Article 66 Save that the Company is under exceptional circumstances such as crisis, unless approved by way of special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contracts with any person other than the directors, president and other senior management officers pursuant to which the management of all or a substantial part of the business of the Company will be given to such person.

Article 67 Shareholders' general meetings include annual general meeting and extraordinary general meeting. The annual general meeting shall be convened once a year, and held within six months after the end of the previous accounting year.

Article 68 The Company shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months of the occurrence of any one of the following events:

- (i) when the number of directors is less than the minimum number required by the Company Law or two-thirds of the number specified in the Articles of Association;
- (ii) when the unrecovered loss of the Company amounts to one-third of the total amount of its share capital;
- (iii) shareholders, individually or jointly, holding 10% (inclusive, excluding voting proxy) or more of the Company's issued and outstanding voting shares, request to convene an extraordinary general meetings in writing;
- (iv) when deemed necessary by the Board;
- (v) when proposed by the Supervisory Committee;
- (vi) other circumstances as required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations, or the Articles of Association.

The proportion of shareholdings referred to in item (iii) above shall be calculated from the date which the shareholders propose the written request.

Article 69 The general meeting of shareholders in the Company shall be held at the domicile of the Company or any other place as specified in the notice.

The shareholders' general meeting shall be convened in a physical venue. In addition, the Company shall provide facilities that allow shareholders to attend the meeting and vote via the internet. Shareholders participating in the shareholders' general meeting by the above means are deemed to be present at such meeting. Voting conducted over the internet shall confirm the identities of the shareholders according to the relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authorities and listing rules of the stock exchanges where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 70 When convening a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall engage legal advisers to provide legal opinions on the following issues:

- (i) whether the procedures of convening and holding the meeting comply with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (ii) whether the qualifications of attendees and convener are legal and valid;
- (iii) whether the procedure and result of voting are legal and valid;
- (iv) legal opinions on other matters as requested by the Company.

Section 3 Convening of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 71 The independent directors shall have the right to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders. For such proposal, the Board shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, make a written response as to whether or not it agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal.

If the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, a notice of such meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the resolution of the Board is passed. If the Board does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall make an announcement with relevant explanations.

Article 72 The Supervisory Committee shall have the right to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders. Such proposal shall be made in writing. The Board shall make a written response as to whether or not it agrees to convene such an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

If the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting of shareholders, a notice of such meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the resolution of the Board is passed. Changes made to the original request in the notice shall be approved by the Supervisory Committee.

If the Board does not agree to the resolutions made by the Supervisory Committee to convene the shareholders' extraordinary general meeting, or fails to give a relevant notice within 10 days after the receipt of the request, it shall be deemed that the Board is unable or fails to fulfill its responsibilities to convene the shareholders' general meeting. The Supervisory Committee can hereby convene and preside the meeting by itself.

Article 73 Shareholders requisitioning the convening of extraordinary general meetings or class meetings shall abide the following procedures:

Subject to the requirements under Article 78 of the Articles of Association, shareholders, individually or jointly, holding 10% or more of the Company's shares may request the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or a class meeting and add resolutions to the agenda of the meeting, and such proposals shall be made to the Board in writing. For such proposal, the Board shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, make a written response as to whether or not it agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or a class meeting, within 10 days upon receipt of such request.

If the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders, a notice of such meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the resolution of the Board is passed. Changes made to the original request in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholder.

If the Board disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders, or fails to give a relevant notice within 10 days after the receipt of the request, shareholders, individually or jointly, holding 10% or more of the Company's shares may request the Supervisory Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or a class meeting, and such request shall be made to the Supervisory Committee in writing.

If the Supervisory Committee agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders, a notice of such meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the receipt of the request. Changes made to the original request in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholder.

If the Supervisory Committee fails to give a relevant notice within the designated period, it shall be deemed that the Supervisory Committee fails to convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting. The shareholder(s) continuously holding for 90 days individually or collectively 10% or more of the shares of the Company may convene and preside over the meeting by himself/themselves.

Article 74 If the Supervisory Committee or Shareholder(s) decide(s) to convene the general meeting by itself/themselves, it/they shall issue a written notice to the Board and file with the stock exchange.

Shareholding proportion of the Convening Shareholders who intend to convene a shareholders' general meeting shall not be less than 10% prior to announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting.

The convening shareholders shall submit the corresponding supporting materials to the stock exchange when issuing the notice of convening a shareholders' general meeting and declaring the resolution of shareholders' general meeting.

Article 75 For shareholders' general meetings convened by the Supervisory Committee or the shareholders, the Board and the secretary to the Board shall coordinate accordingly. The Board will provide the register of members as at the registered date for entitlements of shares.

Article 76 All necessary expenses incurred by the Supervisory Committee or the shareholders to convene a shareholder's general meeting shall be assumed by the Company.

Section 4 Proposals and Notices of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 77 The contents of a proposal shall be within the scope of the duties and responsibilities of the shareholders' general meeting, have definite topics and specific matters for resolution, as well as be compliance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 78 The Board, the Supervisory Committee, and shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's shares shall have the right to submit proposed resolutions to the Company for a shareholders' general meeting of the Company.

The shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's shares may submit extra proposed resolutions in writing to the convener of a shareholders' general meeting in writing 10 days prior to the meeting. The convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the shareholders' general meeting and announce the contents of such extra proposed resolutions within 2 days after receipt thereof.

Except as provided by the preceding paragraph, the convener of a shareholders' general meeting shall not amend the proposed resolutions set out in the notice of the meeting or add any new proposed resolutions subsequent to the issue of the notice of the shareholders' general meeting.

Proposals which are not specified in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting or which do not comply with Article 77 of the Articles of Association shall not be voted and resolved at the shareholders' general meeting and become resolutions.

Article 79 When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, a public announcement to notify each shareholder shall be given 20 business days prior to the date of the meeting; when the Company convenes an extraordinary general meeting, a public announcement to notify each shareholder shall be given the longer of 10 business days or 15 days prior to the date of the meeting.

When the Company sets up the duration of notice, both the date of issue and date of convening of meeting shall be excluded.

Article 80 Notice of shareholders' general meeting shall include the following items:

- (i) it is in written form;
- (ii) the date, venue and duration of the meeting;
- (iii) it shall state the matters and proposals to be considered at the meeting;
- (iv) it shall contain all necessary information and explanation to enable shareholders to make informed decisions on the matters to be discussed. This shall include, but shall not be limited to: any merger, share repurchase, capital reorganization or restructuring proposals, the detailed terms of the proposed transaction, copies of the proposed agreement (if any) and detailed explanation as to the cause and effect of such a proposal transaction shall be provided;
- (v) if any of the directors, supervisors or senior management officers have a material interest in the matters to be discussed, they shall disclose the nature and extent of such interest; and if the effects of the matters to be discussed have a different effect on a director, supervisor or a senior management officer as shareholders compared to other shareholders of that same class, they shall explain this difference;
- (vi) it shall contain the full text of any proposed special resolution to be voted on at the meeting;
- (vii) it shall contain a clear statement stating that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, is entitled to appoint in writing one or more proxies to attend and vote on his/her behalf, and such proxy need not be a shareholder;
- (viii) it shall state the time and address for lodging the proxy forms of the relevant meeting;
- (ix) it shall state the shareholding registration date of the shareholders who are entitled to attend the meeting;
- (x) it shall state the name and phone number of the contact person of the meeting.
- (xi) Where the shareholders' general meeting is to be convened via the internet or in any other manner, the notice of shareholders' general meeting shall clearly state the time and procedure of voting via the internet or any other manner. The time to start voting at a shareholder's general meeting held over network or by other means shall not be earlier than 3: 00 p.m. of the day preceding the date of the physical shareholders' general meeting but not later than 9: 30 a.m. of the date of the physical shareholders' general meeting, and shall not conclude earlier than 3: 00 p.m. of the date of the physical shareholders' general meeting.

The interval between the record date and the date of the meeting shall not be more than seven business days. Once the record date is confirmed, no change may be made thereto.

Details of all proposals shall be fully and completely disclosed in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting and its supplementary notice. In the event that independent directors are required to express their opinions on the matters to be discussed, a notice of shareholders' general meeting or a supplementary notice shall, when given, also disclose the opinions and reasons of the independent directors.

Article 81 A notice of general meetings shall be served on every holder of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares (whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote at the meeting) by public announcement, or by hand or prepaid mail. For notices delivered by hand or prepaid mail, it shall be delivered to the address of the shareholder as shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic shares, notice of the meetings may also be given by way of public announcement.

The public announcement of general meeting of holders of domestic shares referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by the CSRC. After the publication of such announcement, all holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting. The public announcement of a general meeting to holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares may be published on one or more newspapers as designated by the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (with at least one in Chinese and one in English) or given via the website(s) of the Company and/or the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. Upon the publication of such announcement, all holders of H shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meetings.

Article 82 In the event that the election of directors and supervisors is to be discussed at a shareholders' general meeting, the notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall fully disclose details of candidates for the directors and supervisors, and shall at least include the following particulars:

- (i) personal details including educational background, work experience and part-time jobs;
- (ii) whether or not there is any connection with the Company or the Company's controlling shareholders and de facto controllers;
- (iii) the disclosed number of shares of the Company which are held;
- (iv) whether or not they have been penalized by the CSRC and other relevant departments, and disciplined by the Stock Exchange.

Save for the cumulative voting system adopted to elect directors and supervisors, a separate proposal shall be raised in respect of each of the candidates for directors and supervisors.

Article 83 After a notice of shareholders' general meeting is given, the shareholders' general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled, and the proposals set out in the notice of shareholders' general meeting shall not be cancelled without a valid reason. Once the meeting is postponed or cancelled, the convener shall make an announcement and explain the reasons at least two business days prior to the scheduled meeting date.

Section 5 Holding of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 84 The Board of Directors of the Company and other conveners shall take necessary measures to ensure the normal order of a shareholders' general meeting. They shall take measures to prevent any interference with the shareholders, general meeting, disturbance and violation of the legitimate rights and interests of shareholders and promptly report the same to the relevant departments for investigation.

Article 85 All shareholders or their proxies recorded in the register on the record date shall have the right to attend shareholders' general meetings and exercise the rights to vote in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders may attend a shareholders' general meeting in person or may appoint in writing a proxy to attend and vote on their behalf.

Article 86 When an individual shareholder attends a shareholders' general meeting in person, he shall produce his identity card or other valid documents or proof capable of identifying himself, and the stock account card. In the event that a proxy is appointed to attend the meeting, he shall produce his own valid identity documents, the power of attorney from the shareholder and the stock account card.

For a corporate shareholder, his legal representative or the proxy appointed by such legal representative shall attend the meeting. If the corporate shareholder has appointed a proxy to attend any meeting, it shall be deemed to be present in person. In the event that the legal representative attends the meeting, he shall produce his identity card or valid proof capable of proving that he has the status of a legal representative and the stock account card. In the event that the appointed proxy attends the meeting, he shall produce his identity card and the written power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the corporate shareholder according to law and the stock account card.

Article 87 Any shareholder who has the right to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall have the right to entrust one or more persons (not necessarily shareholder(s)) as his/her proxy(ies) to attend the meeting and vote on his/her behalf. Such proxy may exercise the following rights in accordance with the shareholder's entrustment:

- (i) the shareholder's right to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (ii) the right to require by himself/herself or jointly with others to make a resolution by voting;
- (iii) the right to vote by raising hands or ballot, except in circumstances where a shareholder has appointed more than one proxy, such proxies can only exercise the voting right by ballot.

If a shareholder is the Recognized Clearing House or its agent, it may authorize one or more proxy(ies) as it thinks fit to act as its proxy(ies) at any shareholders' general meeting or class meeting of shareholders. However, if more than one proxies are appointed, the proxy form shall specify the number and class of shares represented by each of such proxies under the authorization. Such authorized proxies may exercise the right of the Recognized Clearing House or their agent, as if they are the individual members of the Company.

Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited shall have the right to appoint proxies or legal representatives to attend shareholders' general meetings and creditors' meetings of the Company, and these proxies or legal representatives shall rank pari passu with other shareholders in statutory rights, including rights to speak and vote.

Article 88 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of a Shareholder or his attorney duly authorised in writing. If the Shareholder is a legal person, that instrument shall be executed either under its seal or under the hand of its Chairman or other attorney duly authorised to sign the same.

The power of attorney issued by a shareholder to appoint another party to attend a shareholders' general meeting shall contain the following particulars:

- (i) the name of the proxy;
- (ii) whether the proxy has the right to vote;
- (iii) the instructions to vote in favour of or against, or to abstain from voting on, each matter set out on the agenda of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (iv) the date and validity of the power of attorney;
- (v) the signature (or seal) of the principal. In case the principal is a corporate shareholder, it shall be affixed with the seal of the legal entity.

Article 89 The format of any letter of authority given by the Board of Directors of the Company to shareholders using for appointing proxies shall allow shareholders to choose freely to instruct proxies to vote in favour of, against or abstain a matter, and give respective instructions in respect of resolutions made on each of the matters at a meeting. The letter of authority shall indicate that in case the shareholders do not give any instructions, the proxies may vote as they think fit.

Article 90 Proxy forms shall be made available at least 24 hours prior to a meeting at which voting is appointed in such proxy forms or 24 hours prior to the designated voting time at the Company's domicile or elsewhere specified in the notice convening the meeting. In the event that the proxy forms are signed by other persons authorized by the principals, the letter of authority authorizing the signatures or other authority shall be notarized. Notarized letter of authority or other authority together with the proxy forms shall be made available at the Company's domicile or elsewhere specified in the notice convening the meeting.

In case the principal is a legal entity, its legal representative or Board, or other person authorized by the resolution of decision-making bodies shall be represented at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company.

Article 91 In the event that a principal has deceased, lost the capacity for acts, withdrawn the appointment or withdrawn the authorization signed for the appointment, or the shares have been transferred prior to voting, as long as the Company has not received a written notice of such matters prior to a meeting, the votes cast by a proxy according to the letter of authority shall remain valid.

Article 92 A meeting attendance register of attendants at a meeting shall be compiled by the Company. The meeting attendance register shall state the names (or names of work units), identity card numbers and home addresses of attendants, number of shares held or representing voting shares, the names of principals (or names of work units) and so on.

Article 93 The convener and the lawyers engaged by the Company shall jointly verify the legitimacy of the qualifications of shareholders based on the register of shareholders provided by securities registration and clearing institution and overseas agencies, and record the names of shareholders and the number of voting shares held by them. Meeting registration shall be terminated before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies physically present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares held.

Article 94 During a shareholders' general meeting, all the directors and supervisors of the Company and secretary to the Board shall sit in on the meeting. The president and other senior management officers shall attend the meeting.

Article 95 A shareholders' general meeting shall be chaired by the Chairman. In the event that the chairman is unable to or fails to perform his duties, the vice-chairman (if there are two or more vice-chairmen, the one jointly elected by more than half of the directors shall chair the meeting) shall chair the meeting. In the event that the vice-chairman is also unable to or fails to perform his duties, a director jointly elected by more than half of the directors shall chair the meeting. In the event that the chairman of the meeting is not specified, the shareholders present at the meeting may elect one person as a chairman; if for any reason shareholders cannot elect a chairman, the shareholder (including proxy) present at the meeting with the largest number of the voting shares shall chair the meeting.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the Supervisory Committee on its own shall be chaired by the chairman of the Supervisory Committee. In the event that the chairman is unable to or fails to perform his duties, a supervisor jointly elected by more than half of the supervisors of the Company shall chair the meeting.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by shareholders on their own shall be chaired by a representative elected by the convener.

During a shareholders' general meeting, in the event that the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure so that the shareholders' general meeting cannot proceed, a person may be elected as the chairman of the meeting thereat to proceed with the meeting with the consent of the shareholders with a majority of the voting rights present at the meeting.

Article 96 The Company shall formulate the rules of procedure of shareholders' general meeting, which shall specify in details the convening and voting procedures of the shareholders' general meeting, including notice, registration, deliberation of draft resolutions, voting, votes counting, announcement of voting results, formation of meeting resolutions, minutes of the meeting and the execution thereof, announcement, etc., and the principles of authorization granted by the shareholders' general meeting to the Board. The content of authorization shall be clear and concrete. The rules of procedure of the shareholders' general meeting shall be drafted by the Board and approved by the shareholders' general meeting and is attached as an appendix to the Articles of Association.

Article 97 At an annual general meeting, the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee shall report to the meeting on their work over the past one year. Each of the independent directors shall also make their personal work reports.

Article 98 Directors, supervisors and senior management officers shall explain and illustrate the questions and suggestions made by shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 99 The chairman of a meeting shall announce, before voting takes place, the number of shareholders and proxies physically present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares held. The number of shareholders and proxies physically present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares held shall be based on the registration at the meeting.

Article 100 Minutes shall be prepared for a shareholders' general meeting by the Secretary to the Board. The minutes of a meeting shall record the following particulars:

- (i) the time, place, agenda and name of the convener of the meeting;
- (ii) the names of the chairman of the meeting and the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management officers attending or present in the meeting;
- (iii) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the shareholders' general meetings, the total number of voting shares held and their respective percentages of total number of shares of the Company;
- (iv) the number of voting shares represented by the holders (including their proxies) of domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign-invested shares (including their proxies) who are present at the meeting, and the proportion of their shares out of the total number of shares of the Company;
- (v) the process of considering each proposal, main points of remarks and voting results;
- (vi) the results of voting by holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares in respect of each resolutions;
- (vii) questions, comments or suggestions by shareholders, and the replies thereto or explanations thereof;
- (viii) the names of lawyers, counters and scrutineers of votes;
- (ix) other particulars that shall be recorded into the meeting minutes as prescribed hereunder.

Article 101 The convener shall ensure that the particulars of meeting minutes are true, accurate and complete. Directors, supervisors, secretary to the Board, convener or his representative who attended the meeting shall sign the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of the meeting shall be kept together with the meeting attendance register of shareholders physically present at the meeting, powers of attorney of proxies present, details of voting on the network and other voting methods for a period of not less than ten years.

Article 102 A convener shall ensure that a shareholders' general meeting shall be held continuously until a final resolution is formed. In the event that a shareholders' general meeting is suspended or no resolutions can be made thereat due to special circumstances such as force majeure, the convener shall take necessary measures to restore the meeting as soon as possible or directly terminate the meeting, and make an announcement promptly. Meanwhile, the convener shall report to the local office of CSRC and the stock exchange.

Section 6 Voting and Resolutions of the Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 103 Resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

To pass an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, votes representing a simple majority of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting shall be exercised in favour of such resolution.

To pass a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, votes representing more than two thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting shall be exercised in favour of such resolution.

Article 104 The following matters shall be passed by way of ordinary resolutions at a shareholder's general meeting:

- (i) the work report of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee;
- (ii) the Board's proposed profit distribution plan and loss recovery plan;
- (iii) the appointment and removal of members of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee and their remuneration and payment methods;
- (iv) the Company's annual budget and final accounts report, balance sheet, income statement and other financial statements;
- (v) the Company's annual report;
- (vi) matters other than those that are required to be passed by special resolution under laws, administrative regulations or provisions hereof.

Article 105 The following matters shall be passed by way of special resolutions at a shareholder's general meeting:

- (i) increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
- (ii) the repurchase and issuance of any class of shares, warrants, debentures and other similar securities of the Company;
- (iii) the division, spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (iv) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (v) the Company's purchase or sale of major assets or guaranteed amounts within one year in excess of 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (vi) equity incentive plans;
- (vii) other matters which are required to be passed by special resolution under laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association, and which are supposed to have a significant impact on the Company if they are passed by ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, and which are required to be passed by special resolution.

Article 106 When a shareholder (including his/her/its proxy(ies)) exercises voting rights based on the number of shares carrying voting rights that he/she/it represents, save for the requirements of Article 109 in relation to the adoption of a cumulative voting system for electing directors and supervisors, there shall be one vote for each share.

When significant matters that have an impact on the interests of small and medium investors are considered by the shareholders' general meeting, votes shall be counted separately in respect of the small and medium investors' voting.

The shares of the Company held by it carry no voting rights and such part of shares shall not be counted into the total number of shares carrying voting rights at the shareholders' general meeting.

If a shareholder purchases any voting shares of the Company in violation of provisions of the first paragraph and the second paragraph of Article 63 of the Securities Law, voting rights of the shares exceeding the prescribed percentage shall not be exercisable within 36 months after the purchase, and such shares shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares present at the shareholders' general meeting.

The Board of Directors, independent directors, shareholders holding more than 1% of the voting shares of the Company or investor protection corporations established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the CSRC may solicit voting rights of the shareholders in public. In soliciting voting rights of the shareholders, information including the specific voting intention shall be fully disclosed to the persons whose voting rights are being solicited. Soliciting voting rights of the shareholders on a paid basis or paid basis in disguised form is prohibited. Except for the statutory conditions, in soliciting voting rights, the Company shall not impose minimum shareholding proportion requirement.

Article 107 When connected transactions are voted at the shareholders' general meeting, the following connected shareholders shall not participate in voting. The voting shares represented by them shall not be counted in the total number of shares validly voted. The voting of non-connected shareholders shall be disclosed fully in the announcement on the resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting. Connected shareholders include:

- (i) the other party of a transaction;
- (ii) direct or indirect controller of the other party of a transaction;
- (iii) directly or indirectly controlled by the other party of a transaction;
- (iv) together with the other party of a transaction, directly or indirectly controlled by the same legal person or natural person;
- (v) a shareholder whose voting right is restricted because of incomplete performance of equity transfer agreement or other agreement with the other party of a transaction or connected person thereof;
- (vi) a legal person or natural person which is likely to obtain more benefits from the Company as determined by the CSRC or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange;
- (vii) other connected person as defined by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed.

Procedures in respect of abstaining from voting and voting by connected shareholders are as follows: for transactions subject to approval at the general meeting, the convener shall make a decision prior to the publication of the notice for the general meeting as to whether such transactions constitute connected transactions pursuant to the laws, regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed. If, based on the judgment of the convener, such transactions to be put forward at the general meeting constitute connected transactions, the convener shall notify the connected shareholders in writing, and disclose the information on the connected parties regarding the resolutions to be passed at the general meeting in the notice of the general meeting.

When the shareholders' general meeting considers the connected transaction matter, the connected shareholder shall actively state the situation to the shareholders' general meeting and explicitly indicate that he/she will not participate in the voting. In case such shareholder fails to state the connections and abstain from voting, other shareholders may request him to state the situation regarding the relationship and abstain from voting. If such shareholder insists to participate in the voting, all other shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting at the venue can demand for a poll by adopting the procedures for voting special resolutions, and determine whether such transactions constitute connected transactions and whether or not such shareholder shall abstain from voting. Prior to voting, other shareholders are entitled to demand such shareholder to state the situation regarding the relationship, and such shareholder is also entitled to explain his/her views to the shareholders present in the meeting according to the procedures of the meeting. In the event such situation occurs, the person taking the minutes for the shareholders' general meeting shall note such details in the minutes as illustrated above.

In the event there is any disagreement by the connected shareholders on the results from the procedures for voting special resolutions in accordance with the paragraph above, he/she is entitled to report the case to the stock exchange, and may also submit the matters whether there is any connection and whether he/she is entitled to voting or not to the People's Court for judgment.

The connected shareholder can participate to consider its own connected transaction, explain and illustrate to the shareholders' general meeting whether such connected transactions are fair and legal as well as the reason for entering into such transactions. However, such shareholder shall have no right in participating in the voting of such matters.

In the event such connected shareholder does not abstain from voting when he/she shall, and the shareholders' general meeting resolves to pass the resolutions on the relevant connected transactions that result in any unintended loss on the Company, the other shareholders of the Company or any bona fide third party, such connected shareholder shall be liable for the corresponding civil liabilities arising therefrom.

In considering matters relevant to such connected transactions at a shareholders' general meeting, the resolutions shall be passed by more than half of the votes representing the non-connected shareholders present in the meeting. However, when such connected transactions are to be adopted as special resolutions, the resolutions shall be passed by more than two thirds of the votes representing non-connected shareholders present in the meeting.

In voting on matters relevant to connected transactions at a shareholders' general meeting, the Board of the Company shall reveal the details of such connected transactions to the shareholders' general meeting and respond to questions raised by the shareholders of the Company. Prior to voting, the chairman of the meeting shall announce to the shareholders present in the meeting that the connected shareholders shall abstain from voting. The voting can then be conducted according to the procedures as stipulated in this section of the Articles of Association. The Company may vote on matters relating to the amount of connected transactions and their considerations according to specific situations.

Article 108 The Company shall, on the premise of ensuring the lawfulness and validity of the shareholders' general meeting, provide facilities to the shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting by adopting various methods and channels including the provision of up-to-date information technology measures such as online voting platforms.

Article 109 The list of candidates for directors and non-employee representative supervisors shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for voting in the form of a proposal in writing.

When voting in respect of the election of directors and non-employee representative supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting is conducted, a cumulative voting system shall be implemented.

The cumulative voting system mentioned in the previous paragraph refers to: in electing directors or supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting, the voting right(s) carried by each share shall be the same as the number of directors or supervisors to be elected. The voting right(s) of the shareholders can be exercised on a concentration basis. The Board of Directors shall announce the brief biographies and basic information of the candidates for directors and supervisors to the shareholders.

Methods and procedures for the nomination of directors and supervisors are as follows:

- (i) Any shareholder individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company with voting rights for a period of more than 180 consecutive days as well as the Board are entitled to nominate candidates for non-independent Directors. Any shareholder individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company with voting rights for a period of more than 180 consecutive days, the Board and the Supervisory Committee are entitled to nominate candidates for independent Directors. Any shareholder individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company with voting rights for a period of more than 180 consecutive days as well as the Supervisory Committee are entitled to nominate candidates for supervisors. Non-independent directors, independent directors and supervisors shall be nominated and voted separately.

- (ii) The one supervisor acting as the employee representative shall be elected from the workers' congress. Directors and supervisors shall be elected by way of single candidate election or competitive election through ordinary resolutions passed by shareholders (including proxies) attending the shareholders' general meeting. The supervisor being elected from the workers' congress shall be included into the Supervisory Committee directly.
- (iii) Brief biographies of the candidates nominated for directors and supervisors and their written consents to accept the nomination shall be lodged with the shareholders' general meeting ten days before the shareholders' general meeting is convened.

Article 110 Save for the cumulative voting system, all proposals shall be voted one by one at the shareholders' general meeting. In the case where different proposals are made on the same matter, votes shall be cast in accordance with the sequence of the proposals presented. Unless the shareholders' general meeting is suspended or no resolution may be passed due to exceptional reasons such as force majeure, the proposals shall not be set aside and voting shall take place.

Article 111 When a proposal is being considered at a shareholders' general meeting, no modifications may be made to the proposal, otherwise the modifications shall be deemed as a new proposal and shall not be voted at that shareholders' general meeting.

Article 112 The same voting right may only be exercised at either an on-site meeting, over the network or by another voting method. In the event that the same voting right is repeated, the result of the first vote shall prevail.

Article 113 At any shareholders' general meeting, a resolution may be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is taken as may be required under the listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed or a poll is demanded before or after any vote by show of hands by:

- (i) the chairman of the meeting;
- (ii) at least two shareholders or proxies entitled to vote;
- (iii) one or more shareholders (including proxies) holding individually or in aggregate 10 per cent or more of the voting rights at such meeting.

Unless a poll is demanded, the chairman's declaration of the results of the voting by show of hands and the record of the same in the minutes of the meeting shall be final evidence of the results of the voting. There is no need to provide evidence as to the number of votes for and against the resolution or the proportion of votes for and against in respect thereof.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who makes such demand.

Article 114 A poll demanded on the election of the chairman of the meeting, or on a question of adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Article 115 The vote on shareholders' resolution shall be conducted by way of registered poll.

Article 116 Before voting takes place on a proposal at a shareholders' general meeting, two shareholders' representatives shall be elected to count and scrutinize the votes. In the event that a shareholder has connections with a matter to be considered, the relevant shareholder and his proxy shall not participate in counting and scrutinizing of the votes.

When voting takes place on a proposal at a shareholders' general meeting, lawyers and representatives of shareholders and supervisors shall be jointly responsible for counting and scrutinizing the votes, and shall announce the voting results on the spot. The voting results of resolutions shall be recorded in the minutes.

Shareholders of the Company or their proxies who cast their votes over the network or by another method shall have the right to inspect their own voting results through an appropriate voting system.

Article 117 A physical shareholders' general meeting shall not end earlier than the one held over the network or by another method. The chairman of the meeting shall announce details and voting results on each proposal, and announce whether a proposal is passed according to the voting results.

Before the formal announcement of voting results, the Company, vote counters, vote scrutineers, major shareholders, network services providers and other related parties involved at the physical shareholders' general meeting, over the network and by another voting method shall have an obligation to keep confidential details of the voting.

Article 118 Shareholders present at a shareholders' general meeting shall express one of the following opinions on a proposal submitted for voting: being in favour of, against or abstaining from voting, save for the circumstance under which the securities registration and clearing institution, acting as the nominal holder of shares under the Mainland-Hong Kong Stock Connect, makes a declaration according to the intentions of the de facto holders.

Uncompleted paper ballots, wrongly completed paper ballots, paper ballots with illegible characters and uncast paper ballots shall be deemed as those voters abstaining from their voting rights. The voting results of the shares they hold shall be counted as "abstained".

Where any shareholder is, under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 119 On a poll taken at the meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his or her votes in the same way.

Article 120 In the case of a tie, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 121 In the event that the chairman of a meeting has any doubt about the results of a resolution, he may arrange for the counting of the votes; in the event that the chairman has not counted the votes, shareholders or their proxies present at the meeting who disagree with the results announced by the chairman shall have the right to request counting of the votes immediately after the voting results are announced. The chairman shall immediately arrange the counting of votes.

In the event that votes are counted at a shareholders' general meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the minutes. The minutes together with the signature book containing the attending shareholders and the powers of attorney of the attending proxies shall be kept by the Company.

Article 122 The chairman of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed. His decision shall be final and conclusive and announced at the meeting and recorded in the minute book.

Article 123 The Company shall make a public announcement on the resolutions adopted in the shareholders' general meeting pursuant to applicable laws and the relevant requirements of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed on a timely basis. Such announcement shall include the numbers of shareholders (and proxies) attending the meeting, the numbers of (proxy) shares held by them, their proportion to the total voting shares of the Company, the means of votes, the result of every proposal, the detailed contents of every proposal passed, the attendance and voting information with respect to the holders of domestic shares and of foreign-invested shares.

Article 124 In the event that a proposal is not passed, or a resolution passed at a previous shareholders' general meeting is modified at this shareholders' general meeting, a special note shall be made in the announcement on the resolutions made at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 125 Save as otherwise provided in the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting, in the event that a proposal on the election of directors and supervisors is passed at a shareholders' general meeting, the new directors and supervisors shall assume office upon:

- (i) the date the existing term for the directors and supervisors expire or, if the term of the existing directors and supervisors are about to expire and due for re-election, the date the resolutions of appointing new directors and supervisors are passed, whichever is later;
- (ii) the date the resolutions of appointing new directors and supervisors are passed, if the existing directors and supervisors have resigned and are just acting temporarily or have failed to perform the duties as directors and supervisors due to any reason.

Article 126 In the event that a proposal on the distribution of cash dividends or bonus shares or on share capital increase with transfers from the capital reserves is passed at a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall implement a specific scheme thereon within two months upon the conclusion of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 127 Shareholders may inspect a copy of the minutes free of charge during the office hours of the Company. In the event that a shareholder wants to obtain a copy of the relevant minutes from the Company, the Company shall send out the copy within seven days of verifying the identity of the shareholder and charging a reasonable fee.

Section 7 Special Procedures for Voting by Class Shareholders

Article 128 Shareholders holding shares that are a different class of shares shall be class shareholders holding that class of shares.

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and undertake obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the provisions hereof.

Article 129 In the event that the Company intends to alter or abolish the rights of class shareholders, such alteration or abolition may only be made after it is passed by special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, and at shareholders' meetings respectively convened by affected class shareholders in accordance with Articles 131 to 135.

Article 130 The following scenarios shall be deemed as alteration or abolition of the rights of a class shareholder:

- (i) increase or decrease the number of shares of that class, or increase or decrease the number of shares of a class entitled to equal or more voting rights, distribution rights and other privileges as the shares of that class;
- (ii) change all or part of the shares of that class to the shares of another class, or change all or part of the shares of another class to the shares of that class or grant the conversion rights thereto;
- (iii) cancel or reduce the rights owned by the shares of that class to acquire the accrued dividends or cumulative dividends;
- (iv) reduce or cancel the rights owned by the shares of that class to the priority to obtain dividends or the distribution of property during the liquidation of the Company;
- (v) increase, cancel or reduce the share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, priority placement rights and the rights to obtain securities of the Company owned by the shares of that class;
- (vi) cancel or reduce the rights owned by the shares of that class to receive payables from the Company in a particular currency;
- (vii) establish a new class entitled to equal or more voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges as the shares of that class;
- (viii) impose restrictions on or increase such restrictions on the transfer or ownership of the shares of that class;
- (ix) issue share options or share conversion rights in respect of the shares of that or another class;
- (x) increase the rights and privileges of the shares of other classes;
- (xi) a corporate restructuring programme constitutes the unproportionate distribution of responsibilities undertaken by the shareholders of different classes in the restructuring; and
- (xii) modify or repeal the clauses hereof.

Article 131 Affected class shareholders, regardless of formerly having the voting rights at shareholders' general meetings or not, shall have voting rights at class meetings in relation to matters in items (ii) to (viii) and (xi) to (xii) of Article 130. However, interested shareholders shall not have any voting rights at class meetings.

For the purpose of the preceding paragraph, the expression “interested shareholders” shall have the following meanings:

- (i) when the Company makes a repurchase offer to all shareholders by the same proportion in accordance with Article 29 hereof, or buys back its own shares through public trading on a stock exchange, “interested shareholders” mean the controlling shareholders as defined under Article 63 hereof;
- (ii) when the Company repurchases its own shares by agreement outside a stock exchange in accordance with Article 29 hereof, “interested shareholders” mean the shareholders in relation to that agreement;
- (iii) in a corporate restructuring programme, “interested shareholders” mean the shareholders who undertake obligations at a proportion lower than that of the other shareholders of the same class, or the shareholders having an interest different from that of other shareholders of that class.

Article 132 Resolutions may only be made at a class meeting after they are passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the shareholders with voting rights present thereat in accordance with Article 131 hereof.

Article 133 To convene a class meeting, the Company shall issue a public announcement 20 business days prior to the date of an annual general meeting or the longer of 10 business days or 15 days prior to the date of an extraordinary general meeting, notifying all the shareholders of that class of shares on the register of the matters to be considered thereat as well as the date and venue of the meeting.

Article 134 The notice of a class meeting shall only be given to the shareholders with the rights to vote thereat.

The procedures for convening a class meeting shall be as similar as possible to those for convening a shareholders’ general meeting. The clauses herein regarding the procedures for convening a shareholders’ general meeting shall apply to class meetings.

Article 135 Other than the shareholders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign-invested shares shall be deemed as shareholders of different classes.

The following scenarios shall not apply to the special procedures for voting by class shareholders: (i) with the approval by special resolution at a shareholders’ general meeting, the Company issues either domestic shares or overseas-listed foreign-invested shares and both of them at an interval of 12 months, and the respective number of the proposed domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign-invested shares does not exceed 20% of the outstanding shares of that class; (ii) the Company’s plan to issue domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign-invested shares during its establishment is completed within 15 months of the approval by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council; (iii) the holders of the Company’s domestic shares may transfer their shareholding to foreign investors upon the approval of securities regulatory authorities of the State Council for listing and trading in an overseas stock exchange.

CHAPTER 6 THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 Directors

Article 136 Directors of the Company shall be natural persons, who are not required to hold shares in the Company. A person who falls into any of the following circumstances shall not serve as director of the Company:

- (i) civil incompetence or limited civil competence;
- (ii) no more than 5 years have lapsed since termination of the execution period for penalty on a crime of corruption, bribery, encroachment of property, embezzlement or disrupting socialist economic order, or no more than 5 years have lapsed since termination of the execution period for deprivation of political rights due to committing a crime;
- (iii) no more than 3 years have lapsed since conclusion of liquidation owing to the bankruptcy of a company or enterprise where the person served as a director or factory manager or president and was personally liable for the bankruptcy;
- (iv) no more than 3 years have lapsed since the date of cancellation of the business license and winding-up of a company or enterprise on account of illegal business operations where the person served as the legal representative and was personally liable;
- (v) a relatively large amount of personal debt is overdue but remains unpaid;
- (vi) the person is under investigation by the judicial authorities after a claim has been brought for breaking criminal law, pending conclusion of the case;
- (vii) the person is not eligible for enterprise leadership under the laws and administrative regulations;
- (viii) no more than 5 years have lapsed since the person was found guilty of violating relevant securities regulations and involved in fraud or dishonesty as adjudged by relevant regulatory authorities;
- (ix) the person is currently being prohibited from participating in securities market by the CSRC and such barring period has not elapsed;
- (x) no more than 2 years have lapsed since the stock exchange has declared the person to be inappropriate; and
- (xi) other circumstances specified by the laws, administrative regulations and rules.

For any election and appointment of a director in contravention of the provisions prescribed by this Article, such election, appointment or employment shall be void and null. Where a director falls into any of the aforesaid circumstances in his term of office, the director shall be removed from office.

Article 137 Directors shall be elected or replaced by the general meeting. The term of office of directors is 3 years, renewable upon re-election at its expiry.

Written notice of the intention to nominate candidates for directors and their consent to accept the nomination shall be lodged with the Company after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting and no later than 7 days before the holding of the general meeting. The period of such written notice shall not be less than 7 days.

Subject to the applicable laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders' general meeting shall have the power to remove any director by ordinary resolution before the expiration of his/her term of office without prejudice to any claim for damages by the director pursuant to any contract.

Subject to the relevant laws, regulations and regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, if the Board of Directors appoints a director to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board of Directors, such appointed Director shall hold office only until the next annual general meeting after his appointment and shall be eligible for re-election at the meeting. All Directors appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall be subject to election by shareholders at the next shareholders' general meeting after their appointment. Save for the foregoing, the term of office of directors commences from the date of appointment up to the expiry of the current term of office of the Board. In the event that the term of a director falls upon expiry whereas the new member of the Board is not re-elected in time, the existing director shall continue to perform his duties in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities and the provisions of the Articles of Association until the re-elected director assumes office.

Directors may hold a concurrent post as president or other senior management officers of the Company, provided that the total number of directors who are serving concurrently as president or other senior management officers shall not be more than half of the total number of directors.

Article 138 Directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and shall fulfill obligations to the Company as follows:

- (i) not to abuse his position to accept bribes or other illegal income or misappropriate the properties of the Company;
- (ii) not to misappropriate the funds of the Company;
- (iii) not to set up accounts in his own name or in the name of any other person for the purpose of depositing any of the assets or funds of the Company;
- (iv) not to lend funds of the Company to any other person or use the property of the Company to provide guarantee for any other person without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting or the Board of Directors in contravention of the provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (v) not to enter into contracts or carry out transactions with the Company in contravention of the provisions of the Articles of Association or without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (vi) not to, without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting, abuse his position to seize business opportunities for himself or for other persons which shall otherwise belong to the Company, or operate a business similar to that of the Company for himself or for other persons;

- (vii) not to misappropriate commissions derived from transactions entered into by the Company;
- (viii) not to disclose confidential information of the Company without permission;
- (ix) not to abuse his connections with the Company to jeopardize the interests of the Company;
- (x) not to take advantage of insider information to seek personal gains or the interests of other individuals;
- (xi) other fiduciary obligations as required by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Any income derived by a director in violation of the provisions of this Article shall belong to the Company. The director shall be liable for indemnifying the Company against any loss incurred.

Article 139 Directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association and shall fulfill the following obligations of integrity and diligence:

- (i) to exercise the rights conferred by the Company with due discretion, care and diligence to ensure the business operations of the Company comply with the state's laws, administrative regulations and economic policies, not going beyond the scope of business specified in the Company's business license;
- (ii) to treat all shareholders impartially;
- (iii) to keep informed of the business operations and management of the Company;
- (iv) to sign the regular reports of the Company for confirmation, and to ensure the information disclosed by the Company is true, accurate and complete;
- (v) to honestly provide the Supervisory Committee with relevant information, and not to interfere with the Supervisory Committee or supervisors in performing their duties and powers;
- (vi) to fulfill other due diligence obligations stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities and the Articles of Association.

Article 140 A director who cannot attend the meetings of the Board in person twice consecutively nor appointed any other directors to attend on his behalf is deemed as failure in performing the duties, and shall be subject to replacement as recommended by the Board at the general meeting.

Article 141 Directors may request to resign before expiry of their terms of office. The directors to resign shall submit to the Board a written report in relation to their resignation. The Board shall disclose the relevant information within 2 days.

In the event that the resignation of any director results in the number of members of the Board falling below the quorum, the existing director shall continue to perform his duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities and the provisions of the Articles of Association until the re-elected director assumes office.

Other than the circumstances referred to in the preceding paragraph, the resignation of a director shall become effective upon submission of his resignation report to the Board.

Article 142 Upon a director's resignation becoming effective or at the expiry of his office, the director shall complete all handover procedures with the Board, and his fiduciary obligations to the Company and the shareholders shall not necessarily cease after the termination of tenure and shall remain effective within 5 year after the termination of tenure.

Article 143 No directors shall act, in their personal capacity, on behalf of the Company or the Board if not provided in the Articles of Association or appropriately authorised by the Board. A director shall, when acting in his personal capacity, state his standing and identity in advance whenever a third party may reasonably believe that the said director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board.

Article 144 A director who violates any laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities or the Articles of Association during the course of performing his duties shall be liable for indemnification to any loss so caused to the Company.

Article 145 The independent directors shall perform their duties in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and relevant provisions of the CSRC and the stock exchange.

Section 2 The Board

Article 146 A Board of Directors of the Company shall be established to report to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 147 The Board shall consist of 11 members, including one Chairman, and Vice Chairmen can be appointed if necessary. Among the members at least one third of them shall be independent directors, and there is also at least one member who is an accounting professional.

Article 148 The Board shall exercise the following authority and powers:

- (i) to convene general meetings and report to the meetings;
- (ii) to implement the resolutions passed at general meetings;
- (iii) to determine the Company's business plans and investment schemes;
- (iv) to prepare the Company's annual financial budget and final accounts;
- (v) to formulate the Company's profit distribution plan and loss recovery plan;
- (vi) to formulate proposals for increases or reductions of the Company's registered capital and for the issuance and listing of corporate bonds or other securities;
- (vii) to draft plans for material acquisition, acquisition of the shares of the Company under the circumstances as required in items (i) and (ii) of the first paragraph of Article 28 of the Articles of Association, merger, division, dissolution or change in corporate form;
- (viii) to determine the acquisition of the shares of the Company under the circumstances as required in items (iii) to (vii) of the first paragraph of Article 28 of the Articles of Association within the authorisation of the general meeting;

- (ix) save as otherwise provided by the securities regulatory authorities and the stock exchanges where the shares of the Company are listed, to determine matters relating to the Company's external investment, asset acquisition and disposal, asset mortgage, external guarantee, asset management mandate, connected transaction and external donations within the authorisation of the general meeting;
- (x) to determine the establishment of the Company's internal management structure;
- (xi) to decide to appoint or dismiss the Company's President and the secretary to the Board and other senior management officers, and to decide on their remuneration, rewards and penalties, and pursuant to the president's nominations, to decide to appoint or dismiss senior officers including vice presidents and chief financial officer of the Company and to decide on their remuneration, rewards and penalties;
- (xii) to formulate the Company's basic management system;
- (xiii) to formulate the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (xiv) to deal with information disclosures of the Company;
- (xv) to propose to the general meeting for appointment or replacement of the accounting firms serving as the auditors of the Company;
- (xvi) to receive work report submitted by the president and to review his performance;
- (xvii) to exercise other duties and powers specified in the laws, administrative regulations, rules of regulatory authorities or the Articles of Association.

The Board's resolutions on the matters set out in the preceding paragraph, save for items (vi), (vii), (viii) and (xiii) which shall require the consent of two-thirds or more of the directors, shall be passed by a simple majority of all directors.

The Board of Directors of the Company shall establish an Audit Committee and other relevant special committees such as strategy, nomination, remuneration and appraisal committees as needed. The special committees are accountable to the Board of Directors and perform their duties in accordance with the Articles of Association and the authorization of the Board of Directors, and the proposals shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for consideration and decision. The members of such special committees comprise only directors. Independent directors shall account for the majority in each of the Audit Committee, the Nomination Committee and the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee and serve as the convener (chairman of the committee). The convener of the Audit Committee shall be an accounting professional. The Board of Directors is responsible for formulating the working procedures of the special committees and regulating the operation of the special committees.

Matters beyond the scope of authorization of the shareholders' general meeting shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration.

Article 149 The Board of the Company shall give explanations at the shareholders' general meeting on the qualified audit opinions issued by certified public accountants on the Company's financial report.

Article 150 The Board shall formulate the rules of procedures for the Board to ensure its implementation of the resolutions passed at the general meeting to enhance efficiency and to ensure scientific decision-making.

Article 151 The Board of Directors shall establish strict examination and approval procedures by setting the scope of authority for conducting foreign investment, purchase and sale of assets, asset pledge, guarantee, related party transactions and external donations. Material investment projects shall be examined by experts and other professionals as arranged by the Board of Directors, and shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval.

Save as otherwise provided, if the amount involved represents more than 20% (20% exclusive) of the Company's latest audited net assets, the projects shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval. If the amount involved represents 10% (10% exclusive) to 20% (20% inclusive) of the Company's latest audited net assets, the projects shall be submitted to the Board for review and approval. If the amount involved represents less than 10% (10% inclusive) of the Company's latest audited net assets, the project shall be submitted to the Company's management for review and approval, and reported to the Board subsequently.

The provision above concerning the asset operations such as external investment, acquisitions and mergers refers to the act of investing, owning, acquiring, merging and disposal of interests, physical assets or other properties by the Company.

Except for providing a guarantee to major subsidiaries, the Company shall require the beneficiary of the guarantee to provide the Company with a counter-guarantee for the guarantee provided by the Company to other external parties, the counter-guarantee provider shall actually be capable to provide such counter-guarantee.

As to those external guarantees not falling within the scope as provided in Article 65 of the Articles of Association, or not exceeding the limit as provided in Article 65 of the Articles of Association, they shall be submitted to the Board for approval. As to those external guarantees falling within the scope as provided in Article 65 of the Articles of Association, or exceeding the limit as provided in Article 65 of the Articles of Association, the Board shall prepare the proposals to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval.

Connected transactions shall be subject to the relevant review and approval procedures of the securities regulatory authorities and the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed.

The resolutions of the Board with respect to the provision of external guarantee by the Company under the fifth paragraph of this Article shall be considered and approved by a simple majority of all directors as well as more than two-thirds of the directors present at the meeting of the Board.

The officers being nominated and appointed by the Company to act as directors of the wholly-owned subsidiaries, major subsidiaries and investors of the Company shall obtain the authorization from the Company prior to participation in the decisions made by the board of such entities concerning matters such as external investment, acquisitions and mergers, asset disposals and external guarantees made by such entities.

Article 152 The Board shall not, without prior approval of shareholders in a shareholders' general meeting, dispose of or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the aggregate of the expected value of the consideration for the proposed disposal and the value of the consideration for any disposal of fixed assets in the four months immediately preceding the proposed disposal exceeds 33% of the value of the Company's fixed assets as stated in the latest balance sheet approved by the general meeting. Should there be any inconsistency between the preceding requirements and the provisions of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed in respect of the subject matter, the latter shall prevail. If the shares of the Company are listed on two or more stock exchanges, and should there be any inconsistency between the listing rules of these stock exchanges in respect of the subject matter, the strictest one shall prevail.

A "disposal of fixed assets" as referred to in this Article includes the transfer of interest in certain assets but excludes the usage of fixed assets for provision of guarantee.

The effectiveness of transaction of the Company's disposal of fixed assets will not be affected by a breach of the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 153 The Board of Directors shall have one chairman and may have vice chairmen. The Chairman and Vice Chairman shall be elected by a simple majority of votes of all directors.

Article 154 The Chairman of the Board shall perform the following duties and powers:

- (i) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over board meetings;
- (ii) to supervise and monitor the implementation of resolutions of board meetings;
- (iii) to sign share certificates, debentures and other quote securities of the Company;
- (iv) to sign important documents of the Board and other documents which shall be signed by the Company's legal representative;
- (v) to exercise the authority and powers of a legal representative;
- (vi) to exercise special discretionary power on corporate affairs in accordance with laws and in the Company's interests in case of emergency situations such as the occurrence of natural disasters of an exceptional scale and other force majeure events, and provide aftermath reports to the Board and shareholders' general meeting;
- (vii) other duties and powers as authorised by the Board.

Article 155 The Vice Chairman shall assist the Chairman in performing his duties. If the Chairman is unable or fails to perform his duties, the Vice Chairman shall perform the duties of the Chairman (if there are two or more Vice Chairmen, the one jointly elected by more than half of the directors shall perform the duties of the Chairman). If the Vice Chairman is unable or fails to perform his duties, a director shall be elected jointly by half or more of all directors to perform such duties.

Article 156 Board meetings shall be held on a regular basis. The Board shall at least hold 4 regular meetings each year. Board meetings shall be convened by the Chairman and written notice of the meeting shall be served on all directors and supervisors 14 days before the date of the meeting.

Article 157 A meeting of the Board shall be convened and presided over by the Chairman within 10 days under any of the following circumstances:

- (i) if deemed necessary by the Chairman;
- (ii) if proposed by shareholders holding more than 10% of the voting rights;
- (iii) if jointly proposed by more than one third of directors;
- (iv) if jointly proposed by more than half of the independent directors;
- (v) if proposed by the Supervisory Committee;
- (vi) if proposed by the President.

Article 158 The notice of convening an extraordinary meeting of the Board shall be in writing or by E-mail. The notice shall be served 5 days before the date of the extraordinary meeting of the Board. The reasonable notice may be served by phone or other means on the date of the extraordinary meeting of the Board of Directors under emergency circumstances.

Article 159 A notice of board meeting shall set out the following information:

- (i) date and venue of the meeting;
- (ii) duration of the meeting;
- (iii) reason to convene such meeting and business to be discussed;
- (iv) date of the notice.

Article 160 A board meeting shall be held only if it has a quorum of more than half of the directors and each director has one vote. Resolutions passed at the board meeting shall be approved by more than half of the directors.

Article 161 When a director is considered to have connections with the enterprise involved in a resolution of the Board, save as those otherwise provided in the laws, administrative regulations, relevant regulation or rules, such director shall refrain from voting on such resolution nor can he/she exercise any voting rights on behalf of others directors. The meeting may be held if the quorum is met by more than one half of the unconnected directors. Resolutions of the board meeting shall be passed by more than one half of the unconnected directors. If the number of unconnected directors present at the board meeting is less than three, such matter shall be put forward to a shareholders' general meeting for discussion and consideration. The definition and scope of connected directors shall be determined in accordance with the requirements of the securities regulatory authorities and the stock exchanges where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 162 The vote on board resolutions shall be taken by way of registered poll. Each director shall have 1 vote.

As long as all directors can fully express their opinions, an extraordinary board meeting may be held by way of communication (such as videophone, telephone conference and facsimile), and resolutions passed shall be signed by all participating directors and kept by the secretary to the Board.

Article 163 Directors shall attend board meetings in person. If a director cannot attend board meeting due to whatever reasons, he/she may appoint another director in writing to attend on his/her behalf.

The power of attorney shall state the name of the proxy, the relevant matter to be entrusted, scope of authorization and validity period and shall be signed or sealed by the appointor.

The director attending the meeting on other's behalf shall exercise his/her rights within the scope of authorisation. If a director cannot attend a board meeting and fails to appoint a proxy to attend the meeting on his behalf, the director shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting right at that meeting.

Article 164 Minutes shall be taken for decisions made on matters discussed at the meeting and directors attending the meeting and the person taking the minutes shall sign on the minutes. Directors shall be accountable for the board resolutions. If a board resolution violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association thus causing losses to the Company, the directors participating in the resolutions shall be liable to compensate the Company for the losses. However, if it is verified that a director had stated his/her objection when voting and the same was recorded in the minutes, such director may be exempted from such liability.

Minutes of Board meetings shall be kept and filed by the Company for 10 years.

Article 165 The minutes of board meetings shall include the following:

- (i) date and venue of the meeting and the name of the convener;
- (ii) names of the attending directors and names of those appointed by others (proxies) to attend the board meeting;
- (iii) agenda of the meeting;
- (iv) main points of the statements of directors;
- (v) the method and results of voting for each resolution (the voting results shall clearly state the number of votes for or against the resolution or abstention).

CHAPTER 7 PRESIDENT AND OTHER SENIOR MANAGEMENT OFFICERS

Article 166 The Company shall have one president, who shall be appointed or removed by the Board of the Company. The Company shall have certain vice-presidents, who shall be nominated by the president and appointed or removed by the Board of the Company.

The Company's president, vice presidents, the Secretary to the Board and the Chief Financial Officer are the senior management officers of the Company.

Article 167 The circumstances defined in Article 136 hereof with respect to disqualified directors of the Company are applicable to the President and other senior management officers of the Company.

Requirements set out in Article 138 hereof with respect to the directors' duty of good faithfulness and the requirements set out in items (iv), (v) and (vi) of Article 139 hereof with respect to the directors' obligations of integrity and diligence shall also be applicable to the President and other senior management officers.

Article 168 A person holding other duties other than directorship in any entity of the Company's controlling shareholders and de facto controllers shall not hold the office of a senior management officer of the Company.

The senior management officers shall be only entitled to salaries paid by the Company, and the controlling shareholders shall not pay the salaries on behalf of the Company.

Article 169 The term of the President shall be stipulated in the appointment contract according to the business needs of the Company by the Board, which is usually not more than 3 years; the president may serve consecutive terms if reappointed.

Article 170 The President shall report to the Board of Directors and have the following duties and powers:

- (i) to be in charge of the production, operation and management of the Company, to organize and implement the resolutions adopted by the Board, and to report his work to the Board of Directors;
- (ii) to organize and implement the annual business plans and investment plans of the Company;
- (iii) to draft schemes for the establishment of the Company's internal management departments;
- (iv) to formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (v) to formulate the detailed rules and regulations of the Company;
- (vi) to make proposals regarding the appointment or removal of the vice president and chief financial officers of the Company;
- (vii) to appoint or remove managerial officers other than those to be appointed or removed by the Board of Directors;
- (viii) other duties and powers authorized by the Articles of Association and the Board.

The President shall be present at the meetings of the Board of Directors, but a non-director president shall not have the voting rights at such meetings.

Article 171 The President shall formulate detailed working rules for the President and submit the same to the Board of Directors for approval and, upon such approval, implement such rules.

Article 172 The detailed working rules formulated for the President shall include the following:

- (i) conditions and procedures for convening and participants of the President's meetings;
- (ii) specific duties and division of labour of the President, vice president and other senior management officers;
- (iii) the use of funds and assets of the Company, authority to enter into material contracts and systems for reporting to the Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee; and
- (iv) other matters as deemed necessary by the Board of Directors.

Article 173 The President may resign prior to the expiration of his term of office. The detailed procedures and methods for the President's resignation shall be set out in the service contract entered into between the President and the Company.

Article 174 The vice presidents shall assist the president in dealing with the management of the Company, with which their terms of references shall be determined by the relevant systems of the Company.

Article 175 The Company shall have a Secretary to the Board, who shall be a senior management officer of the Company, and will be responsible for the preparation of the shareholders' general meetings and meetings of the Board, document keeping as well as the management of shareholders' information, information disclosure and other matters.

The Secretary to the Board shall comply with laws, administrative regulations, regulations of the regulatory authorities and the Articles of Association.

Article 176 The office of the Secretary to the Board shall be held by a natural person with necessary professional knowledge and experience, who shall be appointed by the Board. The major duties of the Secretary to the Board are:

- (i) to keep the Company's organizational documents and records intact;
- (ii) to be responsible for the communication and liaison between the Company, relevant parties, the stock exchange and other relevant securities supervision authorities to ensure the Company can maintain its contact with the stock exchange at any time;
- (iii) to be responsible for the management of information disclosure of the Company; to urge the Company to formulate and exercise the information disclosure rules and internal reporting rules for significant information; to urge the Company and relevant parties to discharge their duties of information disclosure; to submit the regular and temporary reports to the stock exchange in accordance with relevant regulations;
- (iv) to coordinate the relationship between the Company and investors; to coordinate investors' visits; to answer the questions raised by investors; to provide the investors with the information disclosed by the Company;

- (v) to prepare meetings of the Board and the shareholders' general meetings in accordance with legal procedure; to prepare and submit the documents of the meetings of the Board and the shareholders' general meetings;
- (vi) to attend the meetings of the Board; to prepare the minutes and sign on it;
- (vii) to be responsible for the confidentiality work relating to information disclosure; to formulate the measures on confidentiality; to urge all members of the Company's Board and relevant informed persons to keep the information confidential before it is disclosed; to adopt any remedial measures for release of insider information in time and report to stock exchange at the same time;

- (ix) to assist the directors, supervisors, President and other senior management officers in being informed of relevant laws, administrative regulations, rules, other governance documents and the Articles of Association, as well as the liabilities being stipulated on them in the listing agreement;
- (x) to urge the Board to discharge its duties in accordance with laws; where the Board is going to make a resolution which is in violation of laws, administrative regulations, rules, other governance documents and the Articles of Association, the secretary to the Board shall remind the directors attending the meeting and request the supervisors at presence to express their opinions; if the Board insists in making the resolution, the secretary to the Board shall record the opinions of relevant supervisors and persons in the minutes and report to the stock exchange;
- (xi) other responsibilities stipulated in the laws, administrative regulations, and those required to be performed by the securities regulatory authorities and the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 177 A director or other senior management officers of the Company may concurrently serve as the secretary to the Board. No accountant of the accounting firm engaged by the Company shall concurrently serve as the secretary to the Board.

Where a director concurrently serves as the secretary to the Board and a certain act needs to be done by directors and the secretary to the Board respectively, he shall not do the act in his double capacities.

Article 178 The senior management officers shall be liable for any losses caused to the Company by their breach of any law, administrative regulation, department rules or the Articles of Association in performing their duties on behalf of the Company.

Article 179 The senior management officers of the Company shall perform their duties faithfully and protect the best interests of the Company and all shareholders. If the senior management officers of the Company fail to perform their duties faithfully or violate their fiduciary duties, causing damage to the interests of the Company and public shareholders, they shall be liable for damages according to law.

CHAPTER 8 SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Section 1 Supervisors

Article 180 Circumstances prohibiting any person serving as a director as stipulated in Article 136 of the Articles of Association shall be applicable to Supervisors.

The Directors, President and other senior management officers shall not act as Supervisors concurrently.

Article 181 Supervisors shall observe the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, owe fiduciary duties and due diligence duties to the Company, and perform their supervisory duties faithfully. They shall not use the authority to take bribes or solicit other illegal incomes, and never encroach upon the Company's property.

Article 182 The term of office of a supervisor shall be 3 years. A supervisor may take another term if he/she is reelected after the expiration of his/her term.

Article 183 If the reelection is not conducted in time after the term of a supervisor expires or the resignation of the supervisor causes the members of the Supervisory Committee to fall short of the quorum, the supervisor shall still perform the supervisor's duty in line with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association until the new supervisor takes office.

Article 184 Supervisors shall guarantee the truth, accuracy and integrity of the information disclosed by the Company and sign written confirmation opinion on periodic reports.

Article 185 Supervisors may attend the meeting of the Board of Directors as non-voting participants, and question or make recommendations on the resolutions to be passed by the Board of Directors.

Article 186 Supervisors shall not use their connections to prejudice the interest of the Company. If any loss is thus incurred by the Company, they shall be held liable.

Article 187 If a supervisor violates the laws, administrative regulations, department rules or the Articles of Association in the performance of his/her duties in the Company and incurs a loss to the Company, he/she shall be held liable.

Section 2 Supervisory Committee

Article 188 The Company shall have a Supervisory Committee. The Supervisory Committee shall consist of three Supervisors and one chairman. The appointment and dismissal of the chairman shall be voted and adopted by more than two-thirds of the members of the Supervisory Committee. The chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall convene and preside over the meeting of the Supervisory Committee. If the chairman of the Supervisory Committee is unable or fails to perform his/her duty, a Supervisor jointly elected by more than half of the Supervisors shall convene and chair the meeting of the Supervisory Committee.

The Supervisory Committee shall consist of 2 shareholder representatives and 1 employee representative of the Company. The shareholder representative shall be elected and removed by the shareholders' general meeting. The employee representative shall be democratically elected and removed by the employees of the Company via the meeting of the employee representatives, meeting of the employees or in other forms.

Article 189 Supervisory Committee performs the following duties:

- (i) to review the periodic reports prepared by the Board of Directors and to comment in writing;
- (ii) to inspect the financial status of the Company, supervise the behaviour of Directors and senior management officers in the process of preparing financial and accounting reports, and may engage intermediaries to provide professional advice when necessary;
- (iii) to supervise the performance of duties by the Directors, President and other senior management officers, and propose to remove Directors and senior management officers who have violated the laws, administrative regulations, the Articles of Association or resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (iv) to require the Directors and senior management officers to correct the conduct of the Directors, President and other senior management officers that may harm the interest of the Company;
- (v) to propose to hold an extraordinary general meeting, and convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting when the Board of Directors is unable to fulfill its duty to convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting specified by the Company Law;
- (vi) to submit proposals to the shareholders' general meeting;
- (vii) to take legal action against the Directors, President and other senior management officers according to Rule 151 of the Company Law;
- (viii) to review whether the preparation and review procedures of the financial and accounting reports prepared by the Board of Directors are in compliance with the relevant requirements and whether the contents thereof are true, accurate and complete;
- (ix) to conduct an investigation when finding irregularities in the operation of the Company. Professional organizations including accounting firms and law firms may be engaged when necessary, with the relevant costs to be borne by the Company;
- (x) other duties and authorities specified by the Articles of Association.

Article 190 General meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall be held at least once every 6 months. A supervisor may propose to hold an extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Committee. A resolution made by the Supervisory Committee shall be voted on and adopted by more than two-thirds of the members of the Supervisory Committee.

Article 191 The Supervisory Committee shall formulate the rules of procedure for the Supervisory Committee which specifies method of discussion and voting procedure of the Supervisory Committee, to ensure the working efficiency and scientific decision-making of the Supervisory Committee.

Article 192 The Supervisory Committee shall record the decisions made on the issues discussed at the meeting in the minutes, which shall be signed by the Supervisors present at the meeting.

Any Supervisor shall have the right to have certain explanatory note entered into the minutes regarding his/her statements at the meeting. The minutes of the Supervisory Committee shall be saved in the archives of the Company for a period of 10 years.

Article 193 All Supervisors shall be delivered a written notice of general meeting of the Supervisory Committee 10 days before the meeting and a written notice of extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Committee 5 days before the meeting (by hand, facsimile etc.). The notice of the meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall include the following:

- (i) date, venue and period of the meeting;
- (ii) purposes and topics;
- (iii) date of notice.

CHAPTER 9 OBLIGATIONS OF DIRECTORS, SUPERVISORS, PRESIDENT AND OTHER SENIOR MANAGEMENT OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY

Article 194 The validity of anything done by the Directors, President and other senior management officers of the Company on behalf of the Company to a third party acting in good faith shall not be impaired by any non-compliance of such Directors, President and other senior management officers in respect to their appointment, election or qualification.

Article 195 In addition to the obligations required by the laws, administrative regulations or listing rules of the stock exchange where the shares of the Company are listed, the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company shall also undertake the following obligations to each Shareholder when performing the duties and authorities granted by the Company:

- (i) not to cause the Company to go beyond its business scope as specified in its business licenses;
- (ii) to act in good faith to maximize the interests of the Company;
- (iii) not to deprive the property of the Company in whatever form, including (but not limited to) the opportunities in favor of the Company;
- (iv) not to deprive the personal rights and interests of the shareholders, including (but not limited to) the right of distribution and voting right, but excluding the Company reorganization proposal submitted to the shareholders' general meeting in line with the Articles of Association.

Article 196 The Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company shall do as they are expected with the prudence, diligence and skills that are demonstrated by a person of reason and prudence under a similar situation in the performance of their rights or duties.

Article 197 When performing their duties, the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company shall observe the principles of honesty and integrity, and shall not put themselves in a situation where their personal interests may conflict with their obligations. This principle includes (but is not limited to) the performance of the following obligations:

- (i) to act in good faith to maximize the interests of the Company;
- (ii) to exercise their authority within the scope specified and not to exceed their authority;

- (iii) to exercise the right of discretion available to them in person, and refuse to be manipulated by others; and never transfer their right of discretion to others, unless permitted by the laws and administrative regulations or agreed upon by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (iv) to treat shareholders of the same class equally, and treat shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (v) not to sign any contract, deal or make any arrangements with the Company, unless otherwise specified by the Articles of Association, or approved by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (vi) not to use the Company's property in whatever form to seek personal interests for themselves, unless otherwise allowed by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (vii) not to use the authority to take bribes or solicit other illegal incomes, and never encroach upon the Company's property in whatever form, including (but not limited to) the opportunity in favor of the Company;
- (viii) not to accept commissions related to the dealings of the Company, unless otherwise agreed upon by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (ix) to observe the Articles of Association, to perform the roles loyally, to safeguard the interests of the Company, and not to use their position and authority in the Company to seek private gains;
- (x) not to compete against the Company in any way, unless otherwise agreed upon by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (xi) not to embezzle the Company's funds or make loans to others out of the funds of the Company, not to deposit the assets of the Company in an account opened under their personal names or any other names, and not to use assets of the Company as security for loans to shareholders of the Company or others;
- (xii) not to disclose any confidential information of the Company obtained during their terms, nor use such information for any purpose other than for the interests of the Company, unless otherwise agreed upon by the shareholders' general meeting. Nevertheless, such information may be disclosed to the court or other competent authority in the following cases:
 - 1. disclosure is required by the laws;
 - 2. there is a duty to the public to disclose;
 - 3. it is in the personal interests of such Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management officer to require disclosure.

Article 198 The Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company shall not incite the following persons or institutions (hereafter referred to as "related persons") to do such things as such Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management officer is prohibited from doing:

- (i) spouses or minor children of the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company;
- (ii) the trustees of Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company or any persons as described in item (i) above;
- (iii) the partner of Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company or any persons as set forth under items (i) and (ii) above;
- (iv) a company controlled de facto by the Directors, Supervisors, President or other senior management officers of the Company alone or jointly or the persons named in items (i), (ii) and (iii) above or other Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company has a de facto controlling interest;
- (v) The Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the controlled company as described in item (iv) above.

Article 199 The fiduciary duty of a Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management officer of the Company does not necessarily cease upon the termination of his tenure of office. The obligation of confidence in relation to the trade secrets of the Company shall survive after the termination of his tenure. Other obligations may continue for such period as to be determined under the principle of fairness, depending on the time lapse between the acts concerned and the termination and the circumstances and the conditions under which the relationship with the Company terminated.

Article 200 Except as provided in Article 62 of the Articles of Association, Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company may be exempted from liabilities for specific breach of duties with informed consent by the general meeting.

Article 201 Where the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company have a major interest, directly or indirectly, in the contract, deal or arrangement already ongoing or proposed to be executed by the Company (except the employment contracts between the Company and the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers), they shall disclose to the Board of Directors as soon as possible why and how they are relevant thereto, no matter whether or not the relevant issue shall be generally subject to the sanction by the Board of Directors.

A director shall not vote on any contract, deal or arrangement or other relevant proposals which are approved by the Board, in which he/she or any of his/her related person has a major interest, nor shall he/she be included in the quorum of the meeting.

Unless the interested Director, Supervisor, President or other senior management officer has disclosed his/her connection to the Board in accordance with the preceding paragraph of this Articles and the above matter has been approved by the Board at a meeting in which the interested Director, Supervisor or senior management officer is not counted in the quorum and has refrained from voting, such contract, transaction or arrangement is voidable by the Company except against a bona fide third party who is unaware of the facts about the breach of duty on the part of the said Directors, Supervisors and senior management officers or unless otherwise specified by laws, administrative regulations, relevant governing ordinances or regulations.

If the related persons of the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company have related interests in a contract, deal or arrangement, the relevant Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers shall also be considered as having an interest therein.

Article 202 If, prior to the Company beginning to consider signing a contract, deal or making an arrangement, a Director, Supervisor, President or other senior manager of the Company notifies the Board of Directors in writing, stating that such contract, deal or arrangement to be executed by the Company in the future would be relevant to him due to the contents contained in the notice, he/she shall be deemed to have made the disclosure specified in the previous article of this Chapter to the extent of the scope stated in the notice.

Article 203 The Company shall in no way whatsoever pay taxes for its Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers, except for the obligation to withhold and pay taxes on their behalf required to perform under the laws, administrative regulations or departmental rules.

Article 204 The Company shall not provide loans or loan guarantees directly or indirectly to the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company and its parent company, or to the related persons of the aforesaid persons.

The preceding paragraph shall not apply to the following cases:

- (i) the Company provides loans or loan guarantees for subsidiaries;
- (ii) the Company provides loans, loan guarantees or other funds for the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers according to the employment contract approved by the shareholders' general meeting so that they may pay the expenses incurred for the purpose of the Company or for the performance of their duties;
- (iii) if the normal business scope of the Company includes provision of loans and loan guarantees, the Company may provide loans or loan guarantees to concerned Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers as well as their related persons, provided only that these are based on the general commercial terms.

Article 205 If the Company provides a loan in violation of the previous article, the recipient of the loan shall be immediately returned, regardless of the terms by which it was granted.

Article 206 A loan guarantee provided by the Company in breach of provision under the first paragraph of Article 204 shall be unenforceable against the Company, except under the following circumstances:

- (i) the lender is not informed when offering loans to related persons of the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company or its parent company;
- (ii) the collateral provided by the Company has been sold by the borrower legally to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 207 The term “guarantee” as described in the preceding articles of this Chapter shall include an undertaking by the guarantor or property provided to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

Article 208 When the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers of the Company breach their obligations to the Company, the Company shall have the right to take the following measures in addition to the various rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations:

- (i) to require relevant Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers to compensate the loss incurred by the Company on account of their delinquency;
- (ii) to rescind any contract or deal executed by the Company with relevant Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers as well as any contract or deal concluded by the Company with a third person (when such third person clearly knows or is reasonably expected to know of the breach of obligations by the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers representing the Company);
- (iii) to require Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers to give up the income obtained as a result of the breach of their obligations;
- (iv) to recover the money received by relevant Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers that shall have been received by the Company, including (without limitation to) commissions;
- (v) to require relevant Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management officers to return the interests earned or possibly earned on the money that shall have been paid to the Company.

Article 209 The Company shall establish written contracts on remunerations of the Directors and Supervisors of the Company, and such contracts shall be approved by the shareholders’ general meeting in advance. The aforesaid remunerations shall include:

- (i) remunerations for being the Directors, Supervisors or senior management officers of the Company;
- (ii) remunerations for being the Directors, Supervisors or senior management officers of subsidiaries of the Company;
- (iii) remunerations for other services rendered for the management of the Company and its subsidiaries;
- (iv) compensation paid to relevant Directors or Supervisors for the loss of positions or retirement.

Except for the aforesaid contract, the Directors and Supervisors shall not take a legal action against the Company over the interests they shall obtain because of the aforesaid issues.

Article 210 There shall be a provision in a contract made between the Company and a Director or Supervisor in respect of their remuneration that the Director or the Supervisor shall, with the prior approval of the shareholders in shareholders' general meeting, be entitled to payment by way of compensation for loss of office or other amounts as consideration for his retirement from office in connection with the takeover of the Company. The takeover of the Company as described in the previous paragraph refers to any one of the following:

- (i) a takeover offer made to all shareholders by any person;
- (ii) a takeover offer made by any person with a view to the offer of becoming the controlling shareholder. The definition of "controlling shareholder" shall be the same as the one defined in the Article 63 of the Articles of Association.

If a relevant Director or Supervisor fails to observe this Article, then any amount he/she receives shall be owned by those persons who accept the takeover offer and sell their Shares, and such director or supervisor shall pay the expenses arising out of the distribution of such amount in proportion, and such expenses shall not be deducted out of such amount.

CHAPTER 10 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM, PROFIT DISTRIBUTION AND AUDIT

Section 1 Financial and Accounting System

Article 211 The Company shall establish a financial and accounting system in line with the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of accounting standard of the PRC stipulated by the finance administration authority of the State Council.

Article 212 The Company shall prepare a financial report at the end of each accounting year, and such financial statement shall be reviewed and verified by accounting firms according to the laws.

The Company shall submit and disclose its annual report to the CSRC and the stock exchange within 4 months after the close of each accounting year; submit and disclose the interim report to the branch of the CSRC and the stock exchange within 2 months after the end of the first half of each accounting year.

The above annual reports and interim reports shall be prepared according to relevant laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the CSRC and the stock exchange.

Article 213 The Board of Directors of the Company shall, at each annual shareholders' general meeting, submit to the shareholders the financial reports that shall be prepared by the Company under relevant laws, administrative regulations and regulatory documents promulgated by the regional governments and departments in charge.

Article 214 The financial report of the Company shall be kept at the Company and shall be made available to the shareholders at least 20 days before the annual general meeting is held. Each shareholder of the Company shall have the right to obtain the financial report mentioned in this Chapter.

The Company shall send a copy of the report of directors together with its annual report (including the annual accounts and the auditors' report in relation to these accounts, including but not limited to the balance sheet (including all documents required to be annexed to the balance sheet according to the relevant regulations) and the income statement or profit or loss statement (including the aforesaid financial reports)) or a summary of the financial report to each shareholder of overseas-listed shares in person or by pre-paid post at least 21 days prior to the convening of the annual general meeting at the address appearing on the register of shareholders.

Article 215 The annual financial statement of the Company shall be prepared in line with the accounting standards, laws and regulations of China and also in line with the relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities in the overseas listing region.

Article 216 The interim results or financial data published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared according to the Chinese accounting standards, laws and regulations, and also in line with relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities in the overseas listing region.

Article 217 The Company shall publish the financial report twice each accounting year, namely, publish the interim financial report within 60 days after the end of the first 6 months of the accounting year, and publish the annual financial report within 120 days after the end of the accounting year.

If the rules of the securities regulatory authorities of the region where the Company shares are listed specify otherwise, such specifications shall prevail.

Article 218 The Company shall not maintain a separate accounts book except the one required by law. The assets of the Company shall not be deposited in any account opened under a personal name.

Article 219 The Company shall, when distributing the post-tax profit of an accounting year, accrue 10% of the profit to list it in the statutory reserves of the Company. The Company may not further accrue the statutory reserves when its accumulative amount exceeds 50% of the registered capital of the Company.

When the statutory reserves of the Company falls short to offset the loss of prior years, the Company shall use the profit earned during the year to offset the loss before accruing the statutory reserves according to the previous paragraph.

After accruing the statutory reserves out of the post-tax profit, the Company may, subject to the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, accrue the discretionary reserve out of the post-tax profit.

The post-tax profit left after the loss recovery and accrual of the reserves shall be distributed in proportion according to the shareholding proportions of the shareholders, unless otherwise specified under the Articles of Association.

If the shareholders' general meeting breaches the preceding paragraph by distributing the profit to the shareholders before the loss recovery and accrual of the statutory reserves, the shareholders shall return to the Company the profit distributed in violation of the law.

The company shares held by the Company shall not participate in the profit distribution.

Article 220 The reserves of the Company are used to offset the losses of the Company, expand business scale or bolster registered capital. Nevertheless, the capital reserves will not be used to offset the losses of the Company.

When the statutory reserve is converted into registered capital, the remaining amount of such reserve shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before the conversion.

Article 221 The capital reserve includes the amounts named below:

- (i) premium obtained from the Share issuance at a price higher than the par value;
- (ii) other incomes that shall be listed in the capital reserves according to the provisions of the finance administration authority of the State Council.

Article 222 After a resolution on the profit distribution plan is made at the shareholders' general meeting, the Board of Directors of the Company shall complete the distribution of the dividend (or Shares) within 2 months after the said meeting.

Article 223 The Company's profit distribution policy is set out as follows:

- (i) The profit distribution of the Company shall focus on providing shareholders with reasonable investment return as well as the Company's sustainable development, and the Company shall maintain the continuity and stability of the profit distribution policy as much as possible.
- (ii) The Company may distribute its profit in the form of cash, shares or a combination of cash and shares or in other ways as permitted by the laws.
- (iii) The Company distributes its profit annually in principle. Nevertheless, interim profit distribution in cash may be made by the Company subject to conditions.
- (iv) Subject to the condition that the Company's cash flow could satisfy normal operation and long-term development need, the Company shall implement proactively the cash dividends distribution and shall guarantee that the accumulated profit to be distributed in cash for the latest three years shall not be less than 30% of the average annual distributable profit realized in the latest three years. Particulars of the proportion of profit distributed in cash annually are proposed by the Board of Directors in accordance with relevant requirements and the Company's operation of the year, which shall be submitted to the general meeting for approval.

The Company shall, after considering various factors such as the characteristics of the industry where it operates, stage of development, business model, profitability and investment expenses, propose different cash dividend policy based on the following situation according to statutory procedures:

1. If the Company is at a mature stage of development with no significant capital expenditure arrangement at the time of profit distribution, cash dividend payout ratio of such profit distribution shall be at least 80%;
2. If the Company is at a mature stage of development with significant capital expenditure arrangement at the time of profit distribution, cash dividend payout ratio of such profit distribution shall be at least 40%;

3. If the Company is in a growing stage of development with significant capital expenditure arrangement at the time of profit distribution, cash dividend payout ratio of such profit distribution shall be at least 20%.
- (v) The Company may distribute cash dividend, provided that the following conditions are fulfilled.
1. Positive figures are recorded for the distributable profits of the Company (i.e. post-tax profit left after the loss recovery and accrual of the reserves) during the year;
 2. A standard unqualified audit report is issued by an auditor for the financial report of the Company during the year;
- (vi) Conditions for the Company to declare script dividend: subject to the fulfilment of the conditions for declaring cash dividend, if the operating income and net profit of the Company show rapid growth, in addition to propose a cash dividend proposal, the Board of Directors of the Company can propose a script dividend proposal if it considers the scale of the share capital and shareholding structure of the Company are reasonable.
- (vii) Decision-making procedures of profit distribution policy

1. The management and Board of Directors of the Company shall propose a profit distribution recommendation of the Company based on the profitability, capital requirements and shareholders' return plan. The recommendation shall be put for approval at a general meeting upon review and approval of the Board of Directors. The independent Directors shall issue independent opinions on the profit distribution proposal.

When determining specific cash dividend proposal of the Company, the Board of Directors shall study and discuss on, among others, the timing, conditions as well as the minimum ratio, conditions for adjustments and the requirements of decision procedures. The independent Directors shall express their opinions clearly.

The independent Directors can gather views from minority shareholders in order to propose a distribution proposal, and submit it directly to the Board of Directors for its approval.

2. Before the specific proposals for distributing cash dividends are considered at the general meeting, the Company shall communicate with the shareholders, especially the minority shareholders, through various channels, such that the opinions and requests of the public shareholders can be fully heard, and their concerns can be responded in a timely manner.

When specific proposals for distributing cash dividends are considered at the general meeting, the opinions and requests of the public shareholders shall be fully heard. The Board of Directors, the independent Directors and shareholders who meet certain conditions may solicit votes from the Company's shareholders at the general meeting.

3. If the Company fulfils the conditions for declaring cash dividends, but does not propose any cash dividend proposal, the management shall explain to the Board of Directors the reasons for not distributing dividend, and the purpose and the proposed application of the undistributed funds retained by the Company. Independent Directors shall then express their independent opinions thereon which shall be disclosed to the public. A special resolution will be put forward to the general meeting for approval upon review and approval of the Board of Directors. The Company shall provide an online voting platform to its shareholders, apart from the onsite meeting, when convening the shareholders' general meeting.
4. The Company shall strictly implement the cash dividend policy stipulated in the Articles of Association and the specific cash dividend proposal considered and approved at the general meetings. If the Company needs to adjust or change the profit distribution policy due to significant changes in the external operating environment or its own operations, it shall be resolved by the Board of Directors after due discussion, and the independent Directors shall express and disclose their views thereon to the public, and then put forward a special resolution at the general meeting for approval.

(viii) The Company shall expressly disclose the details about the formulation and implementation of the cash dividend policy in the annual report, and state the details on the following matters:

1. Whether the policy is in compliance with the requirements of the Articles of Association or the resolutions passed at the general meeting;
2. Whether the basis and ratio of the distribution are specific and clear;
3. Whether the relevant procedures and system are sound;
4. Whether the independent Directors have duly performed their duties;
5. Whether there are opportunities for the public shareholders to fully express their views and requests, and whether their legal interests are sufficiently protected, etc.

If the cash dividend policy is to be adjusted or changed, the Company shall disclose in details such as whether the conditions and procedures for the adjustments or changes are in compliance with the regulations and transparent.

If the Company fulfils the conditions for declaring cash dividends, but does not propose any cash dividend proposal, it shall provide the reasons in details for not distributing dividend, and the purpose and the proposed application of the undistributed funds retained by the Company in the annual reports.

(ix) Upon occurrence of any illegal appropriation of the Company's funds by shareholders, the Company shall deduct the cash dividends to be paid to such shareholders to make up for the funds appropriated by such shareholders.

Article 224 The Company shall appoint a collection agent for the shareholders holding overseas-listed foreign-invested shares. The collection agent shall, on behalf of relevant shareholders, receive the dividend and other payables distributed by the Company in respect to the overseas-listed foreign-invested shares.

The collection agent appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements under the laws of the listing region or relevant provisions of the stock exchange.

The collection agent appointed by the Company for the holders of the overseas-listed foreign-invested shares listed at the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be a trust company registered in accordance with the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Subject to the relevant laws, administrative regulations, rules and requirements of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Company may exercise the right to confiscate unclaimed dividends, but such right shall be exercised only after the applicable time expires.

The Company shall have the right to terminate the delivery of the dividend coupon through the postal service to a holder of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares, but the Company may only exercise such right after the dividend coupon is not cashed twice in succession. The Company may also exercise such right after the dividend coupon is not delivered to the recipient for the first time and was thus returned.

The Company shall have the right to sell the overseas-listed foreign-invested shares held by a Shareholder who is not available for contact in such a way as is considered appropriate by the Board of Directors, but this shall observe the following conditions:

- (i) the Company has distributed dividend to relevant shares for at least 3 times within 12 years, during which the dividend is unclaimed;
- (ii) after the 12-year period expires, the Company shall publish an announcement on one or more newspapers in the listing region of the Company, specifying the intent to sell the Shares, and notify the stock exchange where such Shares are listed.

Section 2 Internal Audit

Article 225 The Company shall have an internal audit system, arrange special auditors, and conduct the internal audit supervision of the financial incomes and expenditures and economic activities of the Company.

Article 226 The internal audit system of the Company and the responsibilities of auditors shall be implemented upon the approval of the Board of Directors. The principal of the audit department shall be accountable and report to the Board of Directors.

Section 3 Engagement of Accounting Firms

Article 227 The Company shall engage an accounting firm that conforms to the relevant provisions of the Securities Law to audit and review the accounting statements and other financial reports of the Company, verify the net assets and offer other consulting services, the term of which shall be one year, and may be renewed.

Article 228 The first accounting firm of the Company may be engaged at the launch conference before the initial annual general meeting, and the term of such accounting firm shall be terminated when the initial annual general meeting concludes.

If the launch conference fails to exercise its powers under the preceding paragraph, those powers shall be exercised by the Board of Directors.

Article 229 The term of the accounting firm engaged by the Company shall commence when the current annual general meeting finishes and end when next annual general meeting concludes.

Article 230 Save for the circumstances mentioned in Article 234 of the Articles of Association, the engagement of an accounting firm by the Company shall be decided by the shareholders' general meeting, and the Board of Director shall not engage an accounting firm before any resolution made by the shareholders' general meeting.

The engagement of accounting firm shall be proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the shareholders' general meeting by poll. When the Board of Directors proposes to dismiss or disengage the accounting firm, it shall notify the accounting firm in advance and specify the cause to the shareholders' general meeting. The accounting firm shall have the right to air their side at the shareholders' general meeting.

When the accounting firm requests to resign from the position, the Board of Directors shall specify the cause in the next annual general meeting. The resigned accounting firm is liable to address the shareholders' general meeting whether there is anything inappropriate with the Company in writing or assigning a representative to attend the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 231 The accounting firm engaged by the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (i) to have the access to the financial statements, records or vouchers of the Company at any time, and have the right to require the Directors, President or other senior management officers of the Company to provide relevant materials and statements;
- (ii) to require the Company to take every reasonable measure to obtain the materials and statements of the subsidiaries necessary for the accounting firm to perform its duties;
- (iii) to attend the general meeting, obtain the meeting notices any Shareholder is entitled to and other information related to the meeting, and address any general meeting over the issues concerning the accounting firm.

Article 232 The Company guarantees that the accounting evidence, accounting books, financial report and other accounting information provided to the accounting firm engaged are true and complete without refusal, withholding or false information.

Article 233 The auditing fee and remuneration of the accounting firm shall be determined by the general meeting.

Article 234 If there is a vacancy of the office of the accounting firm, the Board of Directors may fill up the vacancy by appointing an accounting firm before convening the general meeting. But during the period when the vacancy subsists, if the Company has other accounting firm in office, such firm can continue to carry out the relevant duty.

Article 235 The general meeting may dismiss any accounting firm through an ordinary resolution before the term of such accounting firm expires, regardless of the contract made by the Company with such accounting firm. If the relevant accounting firm enjoys the right to claim compensation from the Company because of the disengagement, the relevant rights shall not be influenced by this provision.

Article 236 The general meeting shall determine if the Company will engage, disengage or not reengage the accounting firm, and report its decision to the securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

The general meeting shall observe the following rules when engaging a candidate accounting firm not in position now to fill any vacancy of the position of the accounting firm, or re-engage an accounting firm who was appointed by the Board of Directors to fill a casual vacancy, or dismiss an accounting firm whose term has not yet expired:

- (i) the proposal on engagement or disengagement shall be sent to the accounting firm proposed for engagement or proposed for departure, or the accounting firm that has departed within the accounting year, before the meeting notice of the general meeting is distributed.

Departure includes disengagement, resignation and termination of the term.

- (ii) if the accounting firm about to depart from the position makes a written statement and requires the Company to furnish such statement to the shareholders, the Company shall take the following measures, unless the Company receives such written statement too late:

1. specify the accounting firm about to depart from the position has made the statement on the notice distributed to make a resolution;
2. distribute the duplicate of the statement as an appendix to the notice in the manner specified in the Articles of Association.

- (iii) If the Company fails to distribute the statement of the accounting firm as specified in item (ii) of this paragraph, the accounting firm may require the statement to be read out at the general meeting and further appeal.

- (iv) the accounting firm that has departed from the position shall have the right to participate in the following meetings:

1. the shareholders' general meeting for which the term of the accounting firm shall expire;
2. the shareholders' general meeting that incurs a vacancy because of the dismissal of the accounting firm;
3. The shareholders' general meeting convened because of the active resignation of the accounting firm;

The accounting firm that has left the office shall have the right to receive all the notices or other information related to the aforesaid meetings, and to address such meetings over the issues concerning itself as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 237 When the Company dismisses or disengages the accounting firm, it shall notify the accounting firm 30 days in advance. The accounting firm shall be given the opportunity to state their opinion during the voting of resolutions to dismiss the accounting firm at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company.

When the accounting firm requests to resign from the position, the accounting firm shall explain to the shareholders' general meeting whether there is anything inappropriate with the Company.

The accounting firm may resign from the position by submitting a written notice of resignation to the registered address of the Company. The notice shall take effect on the date on which it is submitted to the legal address of the Company or such later date as may be specified in the notice. Such notice shall include the following statements:

1. the statement that its resignation does not involve any situation that shall be stated to the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
2. statement on any situation that shall be stated.

The Company shall deliver a copy of the written notice mentioned in the preceding paragraph to the relevant competent authorities within 14 days after receipt of such notice. If the notice contains the statement mentioned in item (ii) of the second paragraph under Article 236 of the Articles of Association, the Company shall keep a duplicate of such statement in the Company and make it available to the shareholders. The Company shall also send a duplicate of such statement to each holder of overseas-listed foreign-invested shares and each person who has the right to receive the financial statements of the Company through mail with prepaid postage to the addresses registered in the list of shareholders or other means specified by the Articles of Association.

If the notice of resignation of the accounting firm contains the statement on any situation that shall be stated as mentioned in item 2 of the third paragraph under this Article, the accounting firm may require the Board of Directors to hold an extraordinary general meeting to hear the explanation about relevant situations concerning its resignation.
